Church St. Parking Ban Changed

Vine to Orchard Area Opened Except From 3 to 6 P.M.

With the exception of a three-hour period from 3 to 6 p.m. weekdays, Marion City Council voted to restore parking to the south side of Church St. at a special meeting Tuesday night.

Decision to set up a limited rather than the 24-hour a day parking ban now in effect came after Council listened to nearly three hours of arguments and despite objections by Mayor Robinson, Safety-Service Director Forrest, and Police Captain Hardin, chairman of the Traffic Commission.

Mayor Robinson said today that he met with a majority of Council after adjournment of the meeting and was told Council had misunderstood part of the limited parking ban legislation they passed a few minutes previously.

As passed, the ordinance would affect the south side of Church St. from Park Blvd. to S. Grand Ave. and the west side of Park Blvd. from W. Center St. to W. Church St.

Their Actual Intentions

Mayor Robinson said members of Council he talked with after the meeting told him they meant to restore parking to the south side of Church St. only between Orchard and Vine Sts. The remainder of Church St. from Park Blvd. to S. Grand Ave. is to continue with no parking on the south side on a 24-hour a day basis, Mayor Robinson said.

Legislation to this effect is to be presented to Council at its next regular meeting, Monday night, he added.

The mayor also said today that parking meters will be re-installed immediately where authorized between Orchard and Vine Sts. in the downtown area and signs prohibiting parking in that section will be removed.

In other action Council also passed an ordinance vacating an alley and another authorizing the

N.Y. Police Holding Californian; Blame "Mother Complex"

NEW YORK (AP)—A year-old girl, taken from her Washington home with her 2-year-old brother, was found today with the woman who, police said, admitted kidnaping the two children.

The woman, identified as Barbara Grimm, 24, of Tulare, Calif., was taken into custody by New York City police after a man who had befriended her became suspicious and telephoned authorities.

Doctors later examined the baby girl, Diane Bradford, and reported she was unharmed and apparently in good physical condition,

Her brother, Clifton Eugene Bradford, was found here in the Central Park Zoo Sunday and was identified yesterday by their father Clifton Eugene Bradford Sr., a Washington mechanic.

Home Federal Loan To Move Saturday

The Home Federal Savings & Loan Association is moving Saturday afternoon to its new location at 137 S. Prospect St., officers announced today.

The association's offices will be open at the present location, 116 S. Main St. until noon Saturday, and on Monday morning will open for business in the new quarters.

The new building, a completely new modern two-story structure, has drive-in facilities for its patrons and also has extensive parking facilities at the rear.

12 Called To Testify On Gambling

Grand Jury Resumes Probe; To Hear Evidence in Stabbing

Twelve Marion area persons were subpoenaed for appearance this morning before the Marion County grand jury as the gambling probe initiated last week was resumed.

Also scheduled to be considered today by the grand jurors was a charge of second degree murder against Virgil Ray Augustus, 45, of 688 Hocking St. arising from the fatal stabbing of June Harris, 34, last Wednesday.

Served subpoenas in connection with the gambling probe were Richard T. Culp of 484 W. Center St; Robert H. Maclaren of Harpster; Fay Dixon of Green Camp; George Griffith of 471 Cherry St.; and Iris Crowley, Theresa Galloway, Elizabeth Lee James, Ann Krider, Babe Blankenship, John P. Andresz, Leo Benson, and Howard Griffith, all of near Marion.

Opened Last Week

The grand jury gambling probe got under way last week following reports of alleged gambling received by County Prosecutor Ralph E. Carhart's office.

Judge Paul D. Smith, in his original charge to the grand jury May 11, read to them a copy of a letter sent to him which Carhart wrote to Marion County Sheriff Glenn Obenour on April 20.

The letter informed the sheriff that the prosecutor's office had received reports that "pinball machines and punchboards paying off

"KIDNAPED" RED PLANE RETURNED TO THE CZECHS. In Berlin's Tempelhof airfield, Czech airmen board a C-47 transport which four other Czechs had "kidnaped" two months ago in their flight to freedom. The Czech airmen headed the plane, which had been flown from Frankfurt to Berlin, across the iron curtain and back to Prague.

"Getting 60 Cents of Defense Dollar"

Ike Tells Nation U.S. Air Arm Not in Danger

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower told the nation last night that, far from skimping on the Air Force, his administration will put 60 cents of every defense dollar into offensive and defensive air power.

"These investments in air power represent and will continue to represent the heaviest single annual outlay of our government," the President said in a national radio broadcast from the White House describing what he termed his "middle way" military program.

"It is my conviction that our developing program—under constant review and study—will result in a steady growth in the size and realize that "the United States, if forced to total mobilization today, could meet and win any military challenge."

Observing that we live in an age of peril, he said defenses must be "carefully planned and steadfastly maintained."

"There is no given number of ships—no given number of divisions—no given number of air wings in the Air Force, Navy, and Marine Corps—no given number of billions of dollars—that will automatically guarantee security," Eisenhower declared.

He said his administration had not set "any fixed sum of money to which our defense plans had to

Polish Flier Lands MIG In Denmark

ROENNE, Bornholm, Denmark (AP)—Another Polish pilot crashed through the Iron Curtain today to land a Soviet-built MIG15 jet fighter on this Danish island 100 miles southwest of Copenhagen.

Roenne police, who immediately took the young pilot into custody, said he had asked for political asylum. The plane was surrounded immediately by military guards with strict orders to keep reporters and press photographers away.

An unconfirmed report said the plane was of a newer type than the one landed on this Baltic island in March by Lt. Franciszek Jarecki, the first Polish Air Force

Arrearages Cleaned Up By Directors

$77 Per Share Payment Authorized In Board Action

Directors of Marion Power Shovel Company, today declared a dividend of $77 per share on its issued and outstanding preferred stock, payable June 30, 1953 to the preferred shareholders of record at the close of business June 19, 1953, it was announced at the company offices today.

This constitutes payments in full of all preferred dividends in arrears, the announcement stated.

In addition, a dividend of $1.75 per share was declared for the current quarterly period payable July 1, 1953 to preferred shareholders of record on June 19, 1953.

Arrearages have been a part of the company's financial problem since 1930.

Two years ago in the annual report to shareholders the management outlined a program which contemplated paying off these arrears out of earnings.

Since that time a partial liquidation of the preferred arrearages had been accomplished, reducing the outstanding amount from $113.75 per share to $77 per share.

John P. Courtright, president and general manager, said today's action was in line with assurances in the 1952 report which said in part "Your management will continue its efforts toward the liquidation of preferred arrears by substantial dividend payments from Marion Water Co. to install two new water mains and three new fire hydrants. Council also accepted an easement across land owned by Hugo Malo from S. Prospect St. to the site of the new General Hospital. This easement provides for the installation of a sanitary sewer and water and gas mains to serve the hospital.

Two Letters Read

Discussion of the Church St. parking ban began after the city clerk read two letters to Council.

One—written by G. B. Bensley, secretary of the Administrative Council of Calvary EUB Church—complained of traffic congestion on Sundays at the E. Church St., Vine St. and Mt. Vernon Ave. intersection. It asked that a policeman be stationed there between 11:30 a.m. and 12:30 a.m. on Sunday to "keep traffic moving faster."

The other letter—written by Mayor Robinson—asked Council to carefully consider the safe movement of motor vehicles through the downtown section in the interest of the entire population of Marion before allowing the return of parking to the south side of Church St.

Mayor Robinson said in the letter he had presented Council with the facts and figures supporting the need for the 24-hour a day parking ban and it was up to them to take the proper action.

Speaks for Merchants

Actual discussion began when Attorney Riley Hall, representing Church St. merchants, pleaded with Council for the restoration of parking on the south side of the street.

He said the businessmen depend on parking in front of their stores to bring in customers and the parking ban has hurt their business.

He also said a traffic count and accident survey prepared by the mayor for the section of Church St. from Orchard St. to Vine St. was not an adequate basis on which to support the parking ban.

Calling Church St. a "race track" since the removal of parking on one side of the street some 97 days ago, Hall said it placed adults and children who must cross the street in danger of being struck by a speeding automobile.

Hall then called on Council to return all parking to Church St. and to wait until after a proposed engineering survey of the city's traffic children missing over the week end, came to New York yesterday after a traveler between New York and Washington connected photos of the boy appearing in newspapers in the two cities. The boy had spent 24 hours in the children's center here without anyone claiming him.

The Washington mechanic told police there that he met a blonde woman in a restaurant Friday, took her home to meet his family, and left her with the children while he and his wife went out for about 15 minutes. Bradford said the woman and children were gone when he and his wife returned.

Deputy Chief Inspector James B. Leggett of the New York police said Miss Grimm "has a mother complex" and had lost a baby of her own.

He also said the Manhattan district attorney's office and FBI agents were conferring in an attempt to determine what charges would be placed against the woman.

She was quoted as saying she had been drinking Friday and "blacked out," not remembering anything until she awoke on a train in Philadelphia.

Wendell B. Ward, co-chairman of the popular gifts divisions, will preside for the reports. Reports will be asked from 125 captains by generals of the five divisions.

Overall quota for the popular gifts division has been set at $55,000 or $11,000 for each division. The five generals are Robert T. Mason, first division; Julian H. Walker, second division; John Ryan, third division; Robert Bush, fourth division; and William Charle, fifth division.

J. B. Bray, co-chairman of the popular gifts drive, today asked any person wishing to contribute to the campaign to contact the YMCA if they are not reached by a worker.

"In a campaign of this kind, it is virtually impossible for our workers to call on everyone in Marion city and county willing to help finish paying for the new Y," Mr. Bray said.

"It is desirable that gifts be made by as many people as possible," he continued. He pointed out the larger number of donors

Launches Recruiting Drive in Marion

Thursday Is Proclaimed As 'National Guard Day'

Thursday has been proclaimed as "Salute to the National Guard Day" in Marion by Mayor Harold Robinson.

He has urged all citizens to participate in any and all activities commemorating the day, which inaugurates the local National Guard unit's recruiting campaign.

The day was proclaimed in observance of the new Republic motion picture, "Thunderbird" relating the valorous exploits of the National Guard in one phase of World War II, which opens at the Palace Theater Thursday.

Company C, 166th Infantry, local National Guard unit, will have displays in the theater lobby during the evening performance of the picture. Displays will include small unit weapons such as machine guns, rifles and mortars.

Booth for Recruiting

A recruiting booth will be set up in the theater lobby where any questions about the National Guard will be answered by First Sgt. Lawrence Edgington of Marion, member of the Marion Guard unit. Pamphlets and other material on recruiting will be available, and explanations of the weapons on display will be given.

During the day, two one-quarter-ton jeeps will patrol the streets of Marion, reminding persons of the observance. It is the first of its kind in Marion.

The local unit, which is commanded by Capt. Robert H. Canterbury of Columbus, includes three other officers and 48 enlisted men. Richard Bigford of Caledonia is executive officer and Lt. James Melby of Marion and Lt. Donald VanLoon of Sunbury are platoon leaders.

Company C is part of the First Battalion, 166th Infantry, which also includes Co. A of Columbus, Co. B of Delaware and Co. D of Mt. Vernon. The Battalion is commanded by Lt. Col. Oliver H. Gibson of Columbus. Company C is also part of the Regimental Combat Team, 166th Infantry, which includes Guard units in Central and Southern Ohio.

Positions Open

In connection with National Guard Day, the local Guard unit has issued a plea for more Guardsmen. It has a large number of positions open for qualified personnel within the unit. Positions include jeep drivers, cooks, technicians, radiomen, squad leaders, in money or things of value are in use and in possession of a number of persons operating public places" in Marion County.

The prosecutor asked the sheriff "to investigate these reports and if true, immediately take the necessary criminal action." Although his investigation failed to turn up evidence of gambling, Sheriff Obenour said the feeling in his office was that payoffs undoubtedly were being made in the county, and therefore he issued an order banning all pinball machines and punchboards from public places outside the city limits.

Although some pinball machine distributors balked at the order at first, saying they did not see the necessity for removing machines used for amusement only, by the end of the week, Sheriff Obenour reported that a canvass by his office indicated that the operators had complied with his order.

Testifying last week before the grand jury were operators of five Marion County business places, as well as Sheriff Obenour, in connection with the gambling probe.

The charge of second degree murder against Augustus resulted from the fatal stabbing of Miss Harris last Wednesday in her home at 686 Hocking St. Witnesses present in the Harris home the day of the stabbing told police that Miss Harris and Augustus were in an upstairs room drinking most of the afternoon.

Staggers Down Stairs

They said Miss Harris came staggering down the stairs with a knife wound in the upper left chest about 2:30 p.m. She apparently died enroute to Marion City Hospital.

Because of the death of her father-in-law, Marguerite Luke was excused from jury duty this morning and was replaced by Alice Peacock on the grand jury. Other members are Lena Johnson, Francis Walton, Robert Breece, Emerson Long, Melba Huddleston, Margaret Smith, Mildred Pickett, Martha Chaney, Marie Everly, George Turner, Edna Wick, Lester Miller, C. E. Graham and Erwin Rowley. Turner is foreman and Walton is clerk of the jury.

efficiency of the air defense, until we have attained an adequate level of security," he declared.

The President said the arms program had been based on "calculated risks which have been prudently reasoned" to avoid natural bankruptcy but attain "lasting strength."

His speech won speedy praise and backing from Republicans in Congress, although some of them balked at the continued high taxes Eisenhower called for.

But many Democrats remained critical of the GOP administration's decision to cut back Air Force goals from the 143 wings set for mid-1955 under the Democratic Truman administration to 120.

Sen. Humphrey (D-Minn) voiced the view of this group when he said in an interview that "no amount of rationalizing will gainsay the fact that the Republicans are making a severe cut in the Air Force."

Sen. Symington (D-Mo), former secretary of the Air Force who has called the proposed cuts "incredible," said he will reply to the President in a senate speech later this week.

Typical of Republican comment was the statement by Chairman Saltonstall (R-Mass) of the Senate Armed Services Committee:

"On the basis of the facts as I know them, under this program we will be building as rapidly as we can a more adequate and more effective Air Force than was originally planned by the last administration."

Chairman Short (R-Mo) of the House Armed Services Committee said he did not believe the five billion dollar slash in requested Air Force appropriations was dangerous but cautioned "We always have the possibility of an atomic Pearl Harbor."

"We do not want to be caught unprepared," Short added, "and the President has agreed that security must come first."

On the controversial cutback of Air Force goals, Short said:

"The President stressed that no one can say the country is safe with 143 wings and in danger with 120. The 143-wing goal was more or less a mythical, mysterious figure drawn out of the air."

As he has before at news conferences, Eisenhower outlined in his first direct report to the nation the theory that American defenses must be built to stand a long time, not just to meet a pre-chosen "D-day of desperate danger, somewhere in the near future."

"There has been . . . no reason to believe that Soviet policy has changed its frequently announced hope and purpose—the destruction of freedom everywhere," Eisenhower said.

He said that Communist guns have been aiming at U. S. bankruptcy, even though the Soviets be fitted."

"We first determined what is truly vital to our security," he said. "We next planned ways to eliminate every useless expenditure and duplication. And we finally decided upon the amount of

Missing Carey Man Found Dead in Field

CAREY—The body of John Williams, 69, missing from his home here since Friday night, was found at 7:45 p.m. Tuesday in a clover field a mile south of here and a mile from the Williams home at 436 East South St.

Clifford Wise, a tenant on the Alonza Ogg farm a mile south of here, stumbled on the body, fully clothed and lying face down, about 50 rods from Elm Hill, while driving cows in from pasture.

Wyandot County Coroner Dr. B. A. Hathaway said death occurred sometime Friday night and was caused from coronary occlusion. Mrs. Mildred Butcher, daughter of Mr. Williams, who makes her home with her parents, said she heard her father in his room at midnight Friday night.

Dean McAllister, Wyandot County Sheriff, and a posse of 50 men from Carey and vicinity began a search for the missing man Sunday and continued through Tuesday.

Born May 15, 1894, at Gallipolis, he was the son of Charles and escapee to Bornholm.

Jarecki's plane was later returned to Poland after a thorough examination by Western air experts. Jarecki was granted asylum and since has gone to the United States.

An official announcement said the pilot today told police he broke away from a formation of MIG fighters flying over Polish territory.

Bornholm is 60 miles north—only a few minutes jet time—from the Baltic Sea coast of Poland.

According to eyewitnesses, the plane circled over Roenne for 75 minutes before landing on a training field at Almegaard army camp, a few miles north of the city.

The camp has no airfield and military personnel there held their breath as the plane roared down onto the rough field. It swayed and bucked across the grass, then halted in a small group of trees in one corner of the training ground.

One of its wings collided with a tree branch but the damage was reported slight.

The young pilot, apparently unhurt, climbed out of the cockpit and greeted the camp commander with a smile.

The commander immediately notified Danish defense and Air Force headquarters in Copenhagen. Air Force jet fighter experts rushed immediately from the capital to examine the plane.

Western military experts generally consider a MIG15 a prize catch. About three weeks ago, the U. N. Command in the Far East offered $100,000 to any Communist pilot in Korea who brought his MIG15 undamaged to the Allied side. Thus far, there has been no announcement of any takers.

Six Women Chain Selves To Chairs in Protest Act

NEW YORK (AP)—Six women who had chained themselves inside an insurance company's skyscraper office gave up early today their protest action against the eviction of a Negro family from one of the firm's housing projects.

After spending nine hours in chains in an anteroom of the 28th-floor office of a vice president of the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company, one of the women told newsmen:

"It is physically impossible to stay any longer."

The women earlier had said they had thrown away the keys to the padlocks holding the chains that linked all of them and their chairs together.

However, they finally admitted that a seventh woman who had been with them earlier had keys.

At that same moment, a telephone call was made to the office by a reporter who said he was outside the building with the woman with the keys.

The women departed about 2:30 a. m. without obtaining any company commitment on their demands. They indicated no plan to return.

A company attorney, who fetched the keys, received assurance from the women that they would leave, before he gave them the keys to the locks.

Frank Lowe, Metropolitan vice president in charge of housing, remained in his office until the wo-current earnings consistent with maintaining a sound balance sheet so as to place the common stock in a position for dividend consideration as soon as possible."

He added that improved earnings had made it possible for such payment without the necessity of long term financing.

During the past few weeks, quotations on Marion Power Shovel common stock have been mounting on the American Stock Exchange in New York City. Starting at around $14 a share before the rise got under way, the selling price Tuesday had reached $23.25 a share. Trading has been heavy during most of this time, running on an average of several hundred shares a day to more than 2,000 shares.

Reds Charge U.S. Stalling

TOKYO (AP)—High U. N. sources in Tokyo were silent today on plans for reopening the Korean truce talks Monday.

But Red Peiping radio jeered that Washington was endangering the parleys by "flouting world demand that the prisoner of war issue be solved immediately."

Reports circulated that the U.N. would modify the proposal put forward last week at Panmunjom to handle 48,500 prisoners who refuse to return to communism.

There was no confirmation of the report at Gen. Mark Clark's headquarters, where the chief Allied truce negotiator, Lt. Gen. William K. Harrison Jr., has been in daily conference since the talks were recessed Saturday.

Sources said if the talks collapse the U. N. might free as civilians 34,000 North Koreans who refuse to go home.

South Korea Tuesday called for liberation of these prisoners.

The other 14,500 prisoners of the 48,500 are Chinese.

Polio Suspected In Marion Child's Illness

A young Marion girl, Dixie Lee Cottrill of 450 Avondale Ave., was taken to Children's Hospital at Columbus Tuesday night after a physician here suspected her serious illness to be polio. Dr. M. M. Weinbaum, city health commissioner, has placed a quarantine on the Cottrill home pending the Columbus hospital's confirmation of the diagnosis. Dixie Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Cottrill of the Avondale Ave. address, and a second grade pupil at the Silver Street School, became ill Sunday night. She was taken to Columbus in a Schaffner-Denzer ambulance.

Ugly Rumor

By Hal Boyle

NEW YORK (AP)—American men are getting a name for being the world's best husbands—and among the world's poorest lovers.

This ugly rumor is based on a theory that the average European male understands a woman's heart and an American doesn't. But more and more American wives are accepting it as true.

Well, girls, it just isn't so. It isn't likely that anywhere on the freckled earth you'll find a man who knows you as well, appreciates you more, or will love you better than here in the home of the henpecked hubby.

"We have overemphasized this belief that American men are not good lovers, and their wives are all frustrated," said Renzo Cesana, who woos and sometimes wows the ladies in his television and radio role, "The Continental."

Renzo, a sophisticated realist, has made something of a study of romance in both his native Italy and his adopted land, America.

He feels too many women have read Dr. Kinsey's clinical study of the American male and reached the conclusion they are missing some of the finer things of life through husbandly ignorance or ineptitude.

"The European woman is as frustrated as the American woman, if not more so," he said. "But she simply doesn't get the chance to protest as loud."

Cesana left the impression he believes the women of all countries will feel frustrated — if they can find a reason.

"The American has no reason to have an inferiority complex about sex," he said, "if Dr. Kinsey polled European men about matters of love, and they told him the truth, he would find them much less informed than American men.

"But they wouldn't tell him the truth. They would simply brag. When it comes to affairs of the heart, a European would lie to his own psychiatrist.

"The average European is sure he is a greater epicure and a greater lover than the American. But he isn't. He doesn't know as much about either food or women as the average American, because he doesn't have the opportunity to get acquainted with them in the same variety and abundance."

Cesana estimated "perhaps 75 per cent of European women" are frustrated in love—far more than in America—but don't know how to raise a holler about it,as who would listen to them anyway?

"The European lover is supposed to be more experienced, but this is ridiculous," he remarked. "Here boy meets girl early, and the two sexes get over their fear of each other very young, In Europe a man ordinarily knows nothing about the opposite sex until after he is married."

But don't American husbands take their wives for granted? Aren't Europeans more romantic and gallant?

"It is the other way around," said Renzo. "In America women take men for granted. As for those little attentions that women love, the American husband probably brings more flowers to his wife in a year than the European does in a lifetime."

Well, ladies, there's the picture—the guy you're tied to may have his dopey days and his dull nights, but he's still the best bargain in the dismal male field.

Now for a peek at the other side of the coin. Renzo is billed as "the world's greatest lover." what is his idea of the perfect woman"

"Most men like the women who like them," he said. "That may be lazy of them—but it is true. It is the same with me. It is always the woman who makes the choice."

Green Camp Church Scene of Banquet

GREEN CAMP—About 70 attended the recent annual Methodist mother - daughter banquet in the church parlors. The program was arranged by Mrs. Frances Davis, Mrs. Ola Uncapher and Mrs. Lois Slack.

Devotions were led by Miss Irene Reynolds. Miss Jenalee Ward sang. A playlet was presented by Susan Shroats, Marcy Jean Davis, Barbara Hedges, Janet Diehl, Gloria Porter, Patty Lashey and Sharon Kay Watts.

Mrs. Edith Schwaderer, Miss Marilyn Lindley, Miss Jean Null and Mrs. Lois Slack presented a playlet and Mrs. Ola Uncapher gave a chalk talk. A gift exchange followed.

Mrs. Nora E. Hughes was recognized as the oldest mother present; Mrs. Robert Kline, the youngest; Mrs. Mary Alice Price, mother with the youngest child; Mrs. Blanche Hedges, mother of the largest family. Also receiving recognition was one family with four generations present, Mrs. Alice Reynolds, Mrs. Ola Uncapher, Mrs. Mary Alice Price and Mary Sue Price.

Couldn't Get By On $160,000 a Year, John Wayne Says

LOS ANGELES (AP)—"I know it sounds ridiculous," John Wayne told the court, but he and his wife "Just couldn't make ends meet" on his income of several hundred thousand dollars a year.

In 1951, for instance, the rugged actor testified yesterday, his wife's extravagances "ate up my $160,000 net income—and some of my capital too."

Wayne is disputing his estranged mate's demand for $9,000 a month alimony pending trial of her suit for separate maintenance. His wife, former actress Esperanza Bauer, estimates his income at $500,000 a year and says they spent more than $13,000 monthly during their six-year marriage.

JayCees Offer Reflector Tape For Autos

Placed on Bumpers, Makes Cars More Visible at Night

A project designed to help reduce the number of traffic accidents in the Marion area will be launched by the Marion Junior Chamber of Commerce Saturday.

Charles Dunn, a member of a special JayCee committee, said today a "Lite-A-Bumper" station will be located on Forest Lawn Blvd., between E. Center and E. Church Sts. beginning May 23.

Motorists who visit this station—to be operated by members of the JayCees—will be able to purchase and have placed on the bumpers of their cars strips of plastic tape which glows brilliantly when light from other car headlights strikes it at night, Dunn said.

Marion city and county public officials have praised the project in the interests of safety.

During the past few days, the JayCees have conducted a "teaser campaign" by placing the tape on the bumpers of nearly all emergency vehicles in the city to arouse the curiosity of those who noticed it.

First cars to be equipped with the safety tape—free of charge—were cruisers of the Marion police department.

To the rear bumpers of these cars, the JayCees attached strips of the red plastic tape about five feet long.

The local project is a part of a nation-wide project along similar lines sponsored by the National Junior Chamber of Commerce.

The tape is made of a plastic film to which is attached thousands of microscopic glass spheres.

Applied in one-inch wide strips, the material is said to be visible up to a distance of one-fourth of a mile, and to catch an oncoming motorist's eye about 70 per cent quicker than regular tail lights. Once applied, at a temperature above 50 degrees, the tape is claimed to remain firmly attached to the bumper for at least two years. It is also said to be equally effective on rainy and other "poor visibility" nights.

William Rawlins is chairman of the "Lite-A-Bumper" committee of the JayCees. All proceeds from the sale will go into the organization's safety fund, he said.

Other members of the committee are Jack Lautenslager, Carl Mounts, Wilbur Flach, and Kenneth Gasmire.

Club Enrolls Marion And Kenton Members

Three new members, Miss Marjory Frost of Kenton, Miss Wilma Kaelber and Mrs. Valeria Helwig, of Marion, were welcomed into the D'Acord Cootiette Club No. 269 at the Thursday meeting in the VFW clubrooms.

Inspection of the club by Grand Snoopy Louse, Mrs. Fredia Bear of Mansfield, was held. Plans to visit the Soldiers' and Sailors' Home in Sandusky and to furnish a treat were made. The club will also visit Dayton Veterans' Administration Hospital and take terry-cloth bibs for the bed patients.

Mrs. Mildred Harton of Mansfield was a guest.

A potluck dinner was served following the meeting, at which Mrs. Dorothy Briner, Chief Gray Back, presided.

It is believed that herds of wild reindeer existed in northern Scotland as late as the 12th Century.

Freedom of Information

Before his countrymen have puzzled their way out of the dilemma which trapped William N. Oatis in a Cech jail for 25 months, some of them will know more about freedom of information.

In this country, freedom of information is unrestricted, except during wartime. Then it is restricted by voluntary agreement among publishers. But newsmen continue to be free even in wartime to collect information, even though it may never be published. Their freedom to find out cannot be abridged.

Everything they find out is in the public domain, once it is published. It is available to anyone who can read. There are no secrets. All information belongs to the men who can find it and the people who can read it. That is freedom of information.

In Cechoslovakia and all other authoritarian governments, there is no freedom of information. It is contrary to law. It was contrary to law in Czechoslovakia when Oatis, an Associated Press reporter, was obtaining information which automatically became available to his employer and therefore to the United States government and the American people. That, in Cechoslovakia, was a form of espionage.

Information in an authoritarian country belongs exclusively to the politicans. Secrecy is one of the cources of their power to terrorize the people. William Oastis had invaded their secrecy. He had committed a crime under Czech law.

The only question was whether or not Oatis should have been punished as an American for violating a Cech law.

One More Whittle

Thundrous protests by John L. Lewis against the Eisenhower administration's nomination of Tom Lyon to be the new director of the U. S. Bureau of Mines do not arise from the candidate's shortcomings.

These are the same protests by the same union boss who tried to dictate the choice of a director of the Bureau of Mines in 1947. That is the issue: Whether or not John L. Lewis,

Duty to Keep Fit

By David Lawrence

President's Health Isn't Partisan Question

The CIO Political Action Committee has begun to snipe at President Eisenhower's golfing, cruising and fishing. Their weekly publication has begun a tally on his hours of recreation.

The CIO folks might better have shown some concern over the fact that Mr. Eisenhower, under union concepts and the eight-hour law, would really be entitled to time and a half in pay for all hours above 40 a week that he works.

If the CIO Political Action Committee is interested in the hours that the President works, as well as those he plays, they would find that he actually works from 55 to 60 hours a week. But the CIO isn't suggesting an increase in pay.

All presidents have found it necessary to get relief from the White House tension. This correspondent defended President Truman when, on the occasion of his visists to Key West, there were critics who begrudged Mr. Truman rest and relaxation. Back in the days of President Wilson, a Democratic president, political opponents were far more respectful. Mr. Wilson used to go golfing two or three times a week and went for a long auto ride on the days he didn't play golf. But nobody criticized him for this. Manners were better then.

Attacks on the personal life of a president are hitting below the belt. The job of being President of the United States carries more responsiblity and worry than any other office in the world.

Lately one distinguished visitor who knew Dwight Eisenhower well in Europe remarked on the latter's appearance as lacking in robustness. The comment was made that Mr. Eisenhower looked thinner and seemed to be missing the outdoor life he formerly led.

Early in the administration, Mr. Eisenhower resolved to take Wednesday afternoons as well as Saturday afternoons off and to try to get in as much relaxation during week ends as possible. He has not succeeded, however, in carrying out that resolution. For the record shows that, since he was inaugurated, he is at work as early as seven o'clock in the morning and spends at least two to three hours in the evening looking over reports and reading official data submitted to him. Even on his weekend trips to Augusta and on his recent cruise to Annapolis, he carried official paper with him and worked at his job for many hours. On his four days on the yacht "Williamsburg" he worked every night, and Saturday night till one-thirty with members on his staff on his speeches for this week.

It is unusual for any president to be granting engagements for Saturday mornings, but Mr. Eisenhower has spent 13 Saturdays thus far at the White House seeing people. His luncheons and dinners on weekdays have been on public business almost without exception. He is putting in longer days than the public has known about.

But even if a president decided to keep union hours and work 40 hours a week and play the rest, would the CIO Political Action Committee think this was wrong? Is there no limitation to political policies of a president are perhaps fair game for political opponents, but the personal life of the president ought to be immune.

This correspondent a couple years ago — when the corruption issue became a subject of widespread interest — had occasion to write that Mr. Truman's tolerance for incompetents in office was a case of bad political judgement but that the President himself was a man of personal and financial integrity.

That defense won this writer only the most severe castigation from bitter partisans who tried to besmirch Mr. Truman's record in private business.

The same thing happened during the Roosevelt administration, when there was an unjustified criticism of a member of the President's family serving in the war zone. The argument was made by this correspondent at the time that a president's personal and home life should not be dragged into politics.

The attack on Mr. Eisenhower because he is trying to get some recreation to help him keep his health is unwarranted and unfair, and if the political opponents of the President, particularly the CIO Political Action Committee, keep up that sort of sniping, it will boomerang.

The American people want a president to keep in good physical condition — and to take whatever hours of recreation he likes and to cut down on the number of those 60-hour weeks. The president's good health isn't a partisan question.

Attlee Brought Attacks Upon Himself

By Raymond Moley

LOS ANGELES

Sen. William Knowland, after something more than seven and a half years of service in the Senate of the United States, received in the California primaries a year ago, something like 2,500,000 votes. Not only did he receive both nominations, but his majority over his opponent was more than 1,600,000 votes.

This was probably the greatest vote of confidence ever given a public official in the United States, with the exception of a president or vice-president.

In the course of this trip, I have traveled across California and have talked with a good many people and have found Knowland's standing in the state higher than ever. I offer this estimate to make the point that when Sen. Knowl-truce talks in Korea, Gen. Harrison.

Attlee said the general "seemed to make observations of his own, right off his own bat." In short, that was to tell the Communists that they are dealing with an irresponsible blabbermouth and not to believe that he represents Allied opinion.

Any American's blood pressure should rise at Attlee's aside on this. It is, he said, "in the American tradition."

Attlee got completely off base when he said in effect that Eisenhower is not master in his own house and that his recent speech did not represent American opinion.

But in answer to Attlee's assertion that some elements in the United States do not want peace, Eisenhower has denied this, and asserted that "the American Constitution was framed for an isolationist state."

Rather, we should say, it was framed for an infant nation that at that moment was surrounded by a number of the most rapacious empires in history, one of which was our present uneasy ally. But to prove that we were hardly willing to remain at home even then, we moved into the Eastern Hemisphere and cleared out the Barbary pirates, a bit of policing which had been neglected by the mistress of the seas.

The point of Attlee's speech was to emphasize that "one of the disadvantages of American democracy is that it is sometimes hard to find where effective power lies."

What he really meant was that

President—Well, how are you, Wayne?

Morse—So-so. And you?

President—I'm able to sit up and take further abuse. It's nice to have you over for lunch.

Morse—I had to eat somewhere. And at no point have my denunciations applied to White House cooking.

President—Fine. I hope this attitude won't be broken by remarks on any subsequent video program.

Morse—Lunch, Mister President, is one thing of which I heartily approve, regardless of politics.

President—One thing is comforting. . . you can't filibuster between courses.

Morse—Is that a challenge?

President—By no means. I haven't enough food in the ice box to last a 26-hour battle. Wayne, after all, I have no hard feelings and respect you as a leading Democrat.

Morse—I'm not a Democrat. I'm an Independent.

President—Yes, but independent against whom?

Morse—Do you wish me to answer that in full?

President (alarmed).—No. You'll have to wait for another Meet the Press appearance. Let's keep this non-controversial.

Morse—When I'm in a noncontroversial situation I'm very unhappy.

President—You're telling me! Listen, Wayne, why did you run out on me after being one of the original Eisenhower men? Didn't you feel a little awkward?

Morse—No. With practice it's rather easy.

President—But why are you so bitter against me?

Morse—Oh, let's not ruin a good lunch with details. Tune in on almost any video hour and you will get my position.

President—Isn't there any chance of winning back your support?

Morse—I'm enjoying myself so much in opposing you that I hate to think of a change.

President—Don't bolt your food!

Morse—I never bolt food.

President—It was my impression you could bolt anything.

Morse—This dialogue is getting almost caustic enough to get on a Sunday afternoon telecast. Please remember you are no Larry Spivak.

President—Right. We must remember, too, that if this gets too rough we haven't Martha Rountree here to call for order. Incidentally, Wayne, do you play golf?

Morse—No and even if I did you couldn't win me back that way.

President—How do you stand on my golf?

Morse—Excuse me from stating my position now. I wish to be free to repudiate your golf game later. This has been a nice luncheon, Ike. You must come over to my place for lunch some time. Do you care for cold cuts?

President—Not for lunch. I get enough of president of United Mine Workers, shall dictate to the Bureau of Mines.

Harry Truman and his secretary of the Department of Interior in 1947, Julius A. Krug, stuck by their nominee, James Boyd. Dr. Boyd served until October, 1951, when he resigned to go with Kennecott Copper Corp. He was succeeded by John J. Forbes, who was and would continue to be acceptable to Lewis as bureau chief.

Dr. Boyd was not a mine safety expert. Neither is Mr. Lyon, who is a geologist. But as Interior Secretary McKay has pointed out, the Bureau of Mines is concerned with a great deal more than mine inspection; its chief does not need to be an inspector to be intelligently concerned with mine safety.

Every time Lewis tries to dictate and is rebuffed, he is that much closer to being whittled down from the vast power he wielded when single - handed, he could flood unions of respectable wage earners with Communist organizers, act in overt contempt of the U. S. government and its courts and threaten national security with his personal power to call a strike against the coal industry.

"Come, Let Us Bathe Together"

Those longshoremen unionists whose antics on the New York waterfront drew a clean-house-or-else ultimatum from AFL headquarters have countered with an embarrassing proposition.

They will throw out all their officers with criminal records if all other AFL unionists will do the same. Otherwise, they will not take seriously the AFL's housecleaning edict.

This seems fair enough. That is what makes it embarrassing.

Unionism has been easy prey for opportunists with shady records but with an insight into self-advancement in the twilight zone between racketeering and "organizing." Like the Communists who made hay in the CIO, hoodlums have been the AFL's special problem.

If the AFL were to expel all its affiliates whose officers have shady past, it would be shy more affiliates than it could afford to lose. The longshoremen have hit where it hurts.

Life Among the Ancients

Excavation of a clay tablet 3,000 years old in Greece has embarrassed some scholars who have been upholding the Greek civilization as wholly academic. On the back of the table, some Greek business man, no doubt a tired one, had carelessly sketched a dancing girl, and a writer in the British Geographical Magazine considers this the oldest "doodle" extant. Modern psychologists profess to find character traits in doodles—the idle marks pencilled during telephone or personal chats. Orderly persons doodle squares and other orderly drawings; harebrained persons just make disconnected scribbles. Things like that. Could it be that there was such a thing as sex back in the Bronze Age in ancient Mycenae, and that every man then wasn't a high-brow scholar dedicated to literature alone

A lexicographer says it is all right to call a party at which coffee is served "a coffee." But why not call it a tea, like every other occasion on which nobody drinks tea?

That kind friend who nibbed in to fowl up our premises — are you still with us, old fellow?

Things are now fowled up good and plenty, and no one ever told us where the lever is you pull to sign things off until another spring. Please telephone instructions and reverse the charges, kind friend.

She — that's the mallard duck that hit the jackpot two weeks ago —is at it again. She has built a new nest and started another egg collection. Her first - born brood now is shifting for itself while she sews on a fresh batch of little garments.

Her sister — that's the one everybody thought was a spinster, has turned out to be a minx. That's no spinster, that gal. That's the second Mrs. Drake.

She is perching on a double deck of mallard eggs in her spare time —and diving into the swimming pool and lolling on the edge no one dreamed she was expecting. But she is.

Furthermore, Kind Friend, what was the idea of not telling us about that double - decked egg arrangement—you who knew all about mallards? Both these duckesses have built their cribs with two layers of eggs — one layer on the ground, then a layer of straw and hay, then a top layer of eggs. These are the eggs they aim to hatch—the top ones.

The bottom layer is the reserve supply, which explains what happened to all those delicious mallard eggs that were going to be eaten for breakfast but could never be found. What was the big secret about that, Kind Friend?

And furthermore, what was the secret about the grumpiness of ganders that have nothing to do but pace up and down for a month while awaiting developments?

Everything used to be quiet and serene at our house. But now everybody is chasing everybody else, squawking and hissing, flapping and biting. Even the dogs are beginning to wear a cowed look, to say nothing of the cows.

Meanwhile, Mrs. Gander is sitting inside a barrel with seven eggs under her — and insisting on doing the whole job backward. Instead of walking into the barrel and turning around so she can see out the open end, she walks in head first, sits down and twists her neck around like this so she can see out. A fool thing like that might cause all seven little geese to be born with their necks turned around like that, too. It wouldn't be fair.

You see, Kind Friend, it's just as we feared it would be if we fowled up things — distracting. It hurts a man's pride to realize he does not know as much about setting on eggs as ducks and geese know. We rearranged that first duck's nest for a week until she made it plain she knew how she wanted it in the first place.

All those eggs down underneath, where an egg-eater had to excavate whenever he wanted one for breakfast. How silly is it permissible for a fowl to be, or not to be; that is the question.

Knowland's scathing denunciation of Clement Attlee's recent speech in Parliament was truly the expression of a great and genuine American voice.

Knowland's speech, however, was delivered so soon after that of Attlee that it is probable that he had no more than a brief newspaper summary of what the Socialist leader said. Had he read the entire Attlee speech, his anger would have been in no wise less, and his material for criticism would have been vastly greater.

Seldom has an expression of a British statesman been so full of misapprehensions of American opinion and so reeking with the gummy drip of condescension as that speech of the representative of a divided, defeated, and discredited party.

Some of Attlee's points deserve emphasis in the United States so that they may be remembered if by some tragic mischance this man should once more become prime minister of our ally, Great Britain.

Most serious at this moment was Attlee's effort to discredit and weaken our representative at the

Huge Public Payrolls

By MARK DANA

The U. S. Census Bureau, blithely statistical, as objective in its figures as could be, adds up the number of Americans working for the Federal, State, county and municipal governments over the country, and computes a round 7,105,000, give or take a few hundred.

This is in the ratio of one government worker to every 20 men, women and children, and indicates that about one-tenth of all gainfully employed workers in the country are on some government payrolls. More than one-fourth are teachers (who of course, and quite properly, are paid from public funds), and about one-fifth are civilians working directly for Federal defense agencies—which in these times is understandable at least.

Another way of stating things is to remind that out of 1,000 persons at random, 15 are Federal employes and 29 are working for State and local governments.

It is easy to inveigh sweepingly against "huge government staffs and payrolls," although it is never enough to say "government costs are too high" any more than it helps much to declaim "there are too many highway deaths." Any constructive and remedial criticism, if anybody wishes to offer suggestions, should get specific and point to one office, one bureau, one function of the Federal, State or local government and assert "This is over-staffed," or "That office has too many, or too high-salaried, persons for the job it is doing or is supposed to do."

Of the $22 billion total public payroll in a twelve-month period, about $10 billion goes to Federal employes, $9 billion to local government workers, and $3 billion to State workers. Even in an era when "billion" is a household word, this cost figures can merit reflection.

It is true that, since January of this year, the Federal Government has considerably slashed Uncle Sam's payrolls, which last October had totaled 2,400,836 workers, and the slashing is still going on. It is just as true that no good citizens want any crippling done to our essential services—including defense, education, health and hospital, postal, highway, natural resources, police and fire protection, public welfare. Yet the proportion of citizens guiding, protecting, directing or administering other citizens does seem tremendous.

Gratifying Although Puzzling

By MARK DANA

Comments by newspapers, officials and citizens in the United States about the release of William Nathan Oatis from a Czechoslovakian prison have varied in trying to interpret the significance of the release at this time. President Antonin Zapotocky explained that the Associated Press correspondent was pardoned on the plea of the newsman's wife. This seems gallant and humanitarian on its face, although there was nothing humanitarian about the arrest, trial, conviction and ten-year sentence for Oatis on a charge of espionage while reporting news to the AP at Prague. All Americans can rejoice that the Indiana news writer has been released after two years of incarceration. Yet trying to read into the pardon a convincing significance is more difficult than explaining his original arrest.

The United States by tradition has been friendly toward Czechoslovakia. Our country was instrumental in setting up the new Republic after the collapse of the Austro - Hungarian Empire. We sided spiritually with Czechoslavakia when Nazi Hitler invaded the land on pretext of protecting native-stock Germans in Sudetenland, the Western border area. Since Soviet Russia took over and made a puppet of the troubled country, Americans have been duly sympathetic. We have been well aware that the Russian Communists, not the oppressed Czech nationals, were responsible for the trumped-up charges against Oatis. Similarly, his release was directed from Moscow. It is presumed that the Communists thought the release would serve their interests. It is proper to query: What interests, and how

Perhaps the release was a part of the current "peace offensive" by Russia. Perhaps it was a bargaining point offered in advance. Perhaps it was to remove a hampering factor of good will and confidence. Perhaps it was a gesture to remove the retaliatory bans —a U. S. embargo on Czech imports of U. S. goods; a ban on travel in Czechoslovakia by Americans save on official business; a ban on flight of Czech commercial planes over the U. S. Zone of Germany—set up in protest of Oatis' arrest. Time, as the saying goes, will tell. If this is a straw in the wind of Communists' reformation, we soon will know it. Anyhow, a travesty on justice and common sense and human decency has been ended although not atoned for.

The "Underwood Burying-Ground" in Claridon Township was laid out about 1835 as a private cemetery. In the early 1880's there were about 100 graves within the enclosure, among them those of Adam Hines, a soldier of 1812 and Jesse Underwood, who fought in the Civil War. Joseph Wyant, a soldier of the Civil War, is buried in the Gable Cemetery. Other "burying grounds" in the township were the Thew graveyard, laid out at a very early day and used as a public cemetery, and the Lawrence cemetery, a family burying place.

The Other Foot

By Inez Robb

Once more I have been anxiously examining myself in the mirror to see if my red fangs are showing. Somehow, in my diabolically clever American way, I still manage to conceal them. The same is true of cruel claws, dripping with the gore of enemies killed in a non - stop war for commercial profit.

INEZ ROBB

This pretty picture of Homo Americanus has once more been etched in acid words by one of our friends and allies, this time Clement Attlee, leader of the British Labor party and one-time British prime minister.

OLD CLEM worked up quite a head of steam. But since I will always choose Voltaire "I do not agree with you, sir, but I will die fighting for your right to say it." over Sen. Joe McCarthy, I must accord the British Laborite the privilege of free speech.

However, Mr. Attlee would be doing me and 159,000,000 other Americans a tremendous favor if he would sit down and shut up long enough only to prepare for us a factual list of the United States individuals and interests "who do not want a cease fire in Korea but on the contrary seek an extension of the war to all of China."

If Mr. Attlee will but do us this favor, we will relieve him and the Labor party or the British public from the necessity of dealing adequately with such selfish, greedy and conscienceless interests and persons.

IF SUCH persons and interests actually exist, this peace-hungary nation, this war-sick populace deserves that they be identified, so that proper measures can be taken.

If such individuals and interests exist within America, they can exist only because of powerful political connections. So the American people, no less than the world at large, would be forever indebted to Mr. Attlee if he would name them in a loud clear voice.

In this one charge against us, let Mr. Attlee either put up or shut up. Let other European and Asiatic leaders, including the Russians, who are always mouthing this charge, also fish or cut bait.

"I have met no one in the United States who doesn't want peace," President Eisenhower told his news conference a day after the Attlee speech.

The President's experience is echoed by that of his fellow citizens.

IF THERE is anyone in this country who wants war, really wants war, he undoubtedly is locked up in a cell marked "padded."

This "police action" in Korea, in which this nation has already suffered more than 130,000 casualties, will be three years old next month—only six months less in duration than the struggle with the Germans in World War II and nine less than the awful contest with the Japanese!

Yet Mr. Attlee by snide inference says that despite our great losses in blood and treasure we Americans are so greedy for dollar profits—that weary, old - old charge of our critics when they have exhausted all other invective—that we not only wish to continue the war in Korea but to spread it to all China.

We are not only greedy but we are ghouls who would fatten on the bodies of our dead soldiers!

WHAT IS SAUCE for the goose is sauce for the gander. I propose that one of our demagogues of the Attlee stripe—yes, we have 'em—get up in Congress and accuse the British, fighting valiantly against Communism in Malaya, of continuing that battle for monetary profit and wishing to spread it to all Southeast Asia for the same sordid reasons.

Just for once, let's see how the shoe fits on the other foot.

And Mr. Attlee, piously beating the dead donkey of American isolationism, couldn't have done more to revive such sentiments than by charges that we run ruinous wars for profit.

Memorial Day Program At Waldo Planned

Dr. George Pfleiderer Will Be Main Speaker At Cemetery Service

A community observance of Memorial Day is planned in Waldo under auspices of the Porter-Snyder Post 605, American Legion, on Sunday afternoon in charge of Commander Eldon Butler.

The three-part program will begin with a parade at 1:30 p.m. from the Legion Home to the town cemetery. Miss Marie Traxler and Miss Rozella Yake will be color bearers. At the cemetery, Leon McCorkle Jr. will deliver Lincoln's Gettysburg address and post members will conduct a ceremony and decorate the graves of veterans.

Dr. George Pfleiderer, commander of Bird-McGinnis Post 162, Marion, will be the principal speaker for the following program in the Waldo park, scheduled for 2:30. The school band, directed by Mrs John Salisbury, will offer an overture, "The Star Spangled Banner," "National Emblem March," and "Stars and Stripes Forever." There will be musical selections by Waldo High School mixed chorus, directed by Mrs. Martha Rice.

The Rev. S. C. Long, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran Church, will give the invocation, and the Rev. William F. Kissel, pastor of the Evangelical and Reformed Church, will give a Scripture reading and the benediction. The program also includes a salute and pledge to the flag and the presentation of American Legion school awards to outstanding pupils in the senior class of the Waldo High School.

Commander Butler will serve as grand marshal and master-of-ceremonies for the parade.

At 8:30 a.m., Legionnaires, including the firing squad and bugler, will assemble at the Legion Home in Waldo and proceed from there to decorate graves in seven cemeteries in Waldo, Richland, and Marlboro Townships.

Leading the parade will be the Marion Eagles Band. Other bands in the parade will be the Bird-McGinnis drum and bugle corps and the Waldo School Band.

2,098 Jobs Abolished In Dept. of Interior

WASHINGTON (AP) — The bad news that their jobs are being abolished has reached 2,098 employes of the Interior Department by today, officials said.

The 30-day dismissal notices went out to headquarters here and to scattered field offices when deep cuts in the department budget appeared certain. Former President Truman recommended $607,251,400, President Eisenhower $484,363,000, but the House voted $406,130,343. The department had 56,178 employes March 31.

Picnic Meeting Closes Season For Doctors' Auxiliary

Rain failed to dampen the spirits of Marion members of the Doctors' Wives Auxiliary Saturday afternoon, when they met for a picnic at the home of Mrs. Merritt Marshall on the Uhler Road. The event closed the auxiliary meetings for the season.

An indoor picnic dinner was served at a table laid with a green cloth and centered with an attractive arrangement of red and white carnations.

Installation of new officers by Mrs. James Greetham, chairman of the speakers' bureau of the state auxiliary, was featured. New officers are: Mrs. Robert Gray, president; Mrs. J. A. McNamara, vice president; Mrs. Philip Smith, president-elect; Mrs. Dan Brickley, treasurer; Mrs. Dan Murphy, corresponding secretary.

The auxiliary's new season will open in September with the traditional president's tea. Plans for next year's agenda include sewing drapes for the new hospital.

Hubert II, of Shreveport, La., Mr. and Mrs. Jack Corey Chambers and Barbara, Mary Joyce and [illegible] of New [illegible]ington, and Miss Mary Davis of Meeker. They attended regular Sunday morning services at the New Bloomington Methodist Church where Thomas Chambers was baptized. Mrs. Chambers received a Mother's Day gift of a fan and a box of silk scarves on Tuesday from her son-in-law, Warrant Officer Junior Grade H. H. Hickman, who is stationed with the air force in Japan.

Election of officers for the new year was held when the Claridon Homemakers Club met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Dale Kimbel, east of Marion. Mrs. Glen Dunkin was named president, Mrs. William Veness Jr., vice president, and Mrs. Ralph Beam, secretary and treasurer.

Hostesses and co-hostesses for the new year were planned, and arrangements were made for a family picnic to be held June 28 at Bucyrus. The hostess was assisted in serving refreshments by Mrs. Jess Davis.

For a recent meeting of the Johnson Street Club, Mrs. Winthrop Ames was hostess. High scores in canasta went to Mrs. Al Hacker, Mrs. Harry Cline, and Mrs. Charles Zeigler. The hostess' gift was won by Mrs, Lou Seckel. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. E. J. Hart.

Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Wilson of

Weddings

Miss Evelyn Hipsher, daughter of Forrest Hipsher of Caledonia, became the bride Thursday, May 14, of Pearl J. Redman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Pearl Redman of Cardington. The wedding took place at 7:30 o'clock in the evening in the Church of Christ in Caledonia with the pastor, the Rev. Elmer Sparrow, officiating.

Music was by Mrs. Lester Mason, organist, and Prof. Lee Shackson of Otterbein College at Westerville, volcalist.

A large basket of white snapdragons, palms and lighted candles decorated the altar.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a ballerina-length gown of white lace over white taffeta. Her jewelry was a matching pearl necklace and earrings, gifts from the bridegroom, and she carried a Testament topped with sweetheart roses and lilies of the valley.

Attending the bride as matron of honor was Mrs. George F. Davis of Columbus, sister of the bridegroom. She wore a dress of blue lace, fashioned like that of the bride, and carried a nosegay of pink and white carnations, Lighting the candles were Miss Glenda Hipsher and Miss Joan Mason.

George F. Davis of Columbus, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, served as best man, and ushers were Raymond Hipsher of Caledonia and Howard Van Houton of Cardington.

A reception was held in the church basement following the ceremony. Serving were Mrs. Ruthella Longacre, Mrs. Phyllis Martin, Mrs. June Beckel, Mrs. Doris Kellogg and Mrs. Evelyn Durham. When the couple left on a wedding trip through southern Ohio and West Virginia, Mrs. Redman was wearing a black and white linen dress with a matching bolero and white accessories. They will reside at 291 Marion Ave., this city.

Mrs. Redman is a teacher in the Marion city schools. Mr. Redman is employed at the Marion Engineer Depot.

At the rehearsal party held Sunday, May 10, at the home of Mrs. Walter M. Lindsay in Caledonia, Miss Hipsher presented earrings to her attendant and Mr. Redman gave his best man and ushers tie clasps.

Out-of-town guests were from Columbus, Galion, Marion, Edison, Caledonia, Cardington and Fort Wayne, Ind.

On Sunday, May 10, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Dilsaver in Green Camp. Miss Charlene Gatton became the bride of Charles Shupe. Miss Gatton, the daughter of Paul Gatton of Fostoria, has made her home with the Dilsavers wore a pink sheer dress with pink and navy blue accessories and a corsage of white carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held for about 60 guests. Arrangements of garden flowers were throughout the rooms, and centering the bride's table was a three-tiered wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and bridegroom. Lighted candles also were on the table. Serving were Mrs. Margaret Larkin and Miss Verna Weaver, both of Marion. The couple are living at the Dilsaver home for the present but plan to reside in Green Camp.

Mrs. Shupe was graduated from Marengo High School and the Marion Business College and is employed in the office at the Marion Power Shovel Co. Mr. Shupe, a graduate of Lancaster High School, is employed at the pumping station of the Marion Water Co.

A surprise shower for Mrs. Shupe was given Thursday evening by Mrs. Olsheski at the Dilsaver home. Guests included Mrs. C. D. Rader and daughter, Wanda, Mrs. Floyd Robbins and daughter, Joan, Mrs. Max Hamblin, Mrs. John Lanius, Mrs. Richard Ward, Mrs. Joe Ward, Mrs. Reginald Smith and Miss Verna Weaver.

Burroughs Club Meeting Held At Girl Scout Camp

A picnic meeting was held by the Burroughs Nature Club Monday evening at Camp Young, a Girl Scout camp, north of Marion. The social committee, composed of Mrs. Hazel Strubel, chairman, Mrs. J. C. Porter, Mrs. Carl Tozzer and Mrs. Frank Bentz, was in charge.

The club members were taken on a tour of the camp grounds by Mrs. Ray Romine, who this year is serving as camp chairman for the Girl Scouts.

Twenty-six members responded to roll call on the subject "Where Are You Going?" Mrs. Romine, presided for the meeting, during which committee reports were given. Miss Isabel Stump, field trip chairman, gave a report on a recent trip to Magee Marsh near Toledo made by six members. Mrs. H. O. Wendling, Arbor Day chairman, reported on a tree planting project of April 24 when trees were planted in honor of Miss Mary S. Kull and the Ohio Sesquicentennial. Miss Grace Wingett read a poem in honor of Miss Kull, written by Miss Edith Keeler.

Appointed on an auditing committee were Mrs. Don D. Hentze, chairman, Miss Marie Stull and Mrs. Harry G. Ziegler.

Mrs. Romine as retiring president thanked members of her committee for their work during the past three years and turned the gavel over to Miss Vera Stull, new president. Meetings will be resumed in the fall.

Band, Orchestra Tags Bring $461

The sum of $461.70 was realized from the tag day sale held by the Harding High School Band and Orchestra Parents Association on May 8.

A set of kettle drums has been ordered for use by the band and orchestra, Homer Huffman, instrumental music supervisor, has announced, for which the money received will be used. The set of drums now in use, which have been in the school, for the past 25 years, will be placed in one of the junior high schools, he said.

DAR Chapter Hears Talk By Miss Rauhauser

Miss Pansy Rauhauser spoke on "The Ohioana Library" at a meeting of Captain William Hendricks Chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, Thursday evening in the Presidential Suite at Hotel Harding.

Miss Rauhauser pointed out that the library houses only books and brochures written by Ohioans and about the state of Ohio and its people. Some of the Ohio authors she spoke of were Zane Grey, Louis Bromfield, James Thurber and Frank Seidel. Marion County authors mentioned were Esther Wood, J. L. Morrill, college president, who has been invited to dedicate the new Harding High School, Keith Henney, Edward Hipsher and John Rawlins.

Miss Rauhauser was introduced by Mrs. J. P. Robinson.

Miss Maxine Field, regent, presided for the meeting and devotions were conducted by Mrs. O. V. Roby, Miss Elizabeth Amann gave a report on the national DAR convention held in April in Washington, D. C., to which she was a delegate along with Mrs. H. A. Ammann and Mrs. Fred Hoch of Marion, and Mrs. Frank Purdy of Cincinnati, all of the local chapter. Miss Field has accepted an appointment as state junior membership chairman for the new state regent, Mrs. M. H. Bixler of Fremont, who was guest speaker at the local chapter's February meeting.

Guests were Mrs. A. H. Honefanger of Marion, Mrs. J. A. McClellan of Urbana, and Mrs. Charles C. Rowland of Ridgewood, N. J.

Hostesses for the day were Mrs. Ray King, Mrs. John Courtright, Mrs. William Hamor, Mrs. Rayl Conyers, Mrs. Griselda Dombaugh, Mrs. George Frank, Miss Ruth Gorham. Miss Maude Gorham, Mrs. H. J. Mautz, Mrs. E. N. Sloane and Miss Mary Alice Virtue.

The next meeting will be a 1 o'clock luncheon on June 12 at the Marion Country Club for which Frank Seidel of Columbus, an Ohio author, will be guest speaker.

Fate of Empires

By George Sokolsky

SOKOLSKY

The peoples of Asia, after World War I, determined no longer to be colonial or semi-colonial nations. Japan had set an example for all Asiatic countries, namely, that it had succeeded in changing from a semi-colonial country to independence and to becoming the fourth power on earth (1919).

Turkey, which had been pro-German and was defeated in that war, losing her vast Arabic dependencies, built herself into a small, compact but important state under the leadership of Kemal Pasha.

PERSIA managed to eliminate the spheres of influence of both Russia and Great Britain.

In China, the tuchuns (warlords) prevailed, keeping the country in turmoil, but the Students Movement of May, 1919, which prevented the Chinese government from signing the Paris Treaty, rejuvenated a nation and ushered in a period of intensive nationalism and anti-foreignism.

In India, Gandhi appeared as a leader of a movement of nationalistic passive resistance which ultimately succeeded in winning for India its independence from Great Britain; however, at the cost of partition, resulting in the establishment of the new Moslem state of Pakistan.

Even in the Philippines the innomically, to take over the huge tasks of managing a far-flung island nation.

Colonialism ended in Indonesia, but should the Russians take Siam and Malaya, Indonesia could not defend herself.

As a matter of cold fact, only the United States can today defend Indonesia — a supple area for use of rubber and other essentials.

The British have lost India, their influence in Afghanistan, their economic power in China, their oil in Iran (Persia), and their persuasive influence in the Arabic countries.

They hold the Malay Peninsula, source of tin and rubber; they are influential in Burma, and they possess Hongkong in China.

India and Pakistan, while independent, are members of the (British) Commonwealth of Nations.

Tiben, which Britain dominated, is now part of the Soviet Empire.

-:-

THE SHRINKING of the British Empire is a major tragedy in history, for while it is sound, from the standpoint of American politic theory, for each people to have a government of its own choosing, actually what has happened is that a hundred doors have been opened to Russian imperialism in Asia.

The British Empire maintained the peace of a continent from Pondicherry (1815) to Yalta (1945).

France's empire in 'Asia, once larger, came down to Indo-China, which lies on China, Burma and Siam.

This consisted originally of five areas, Cochin-China, Cambodia, Laos, Annam and Tonkin.

It is a land in which the cultures and races of India and China have become assimilated among native races. This country Russia is now conquering.

Of all the European nations, France has put up the best fight to hold her empire, although she is now forced to make concessions to local kings and governments, which, if Russia does not conquer the country, will result in a split-up into small nations.

The end of empire in Asia means chaos in our times.

Only Russia, among European nations, is continuing to expand her empire.

Annual Prom Honors Seniors At Sycamore

Special to The Star

SYCAMORE -- Star-filled skies furnished the theme of the decorations on Saturday night when the annual junior-senior prom was held in the school dining room. To carry out the idea hundreds of blue and silver stars were suspended from the ceiling and to accent the arrangement, a moon was added to the galaxy.

The seniors and faculty members were escorted to the banquet tables through a miniature rock garden complete with flowering trees, a rose covered fence and a wishing well. Each guest was asked to make a wish as they passed the old well.

Garden flowers were used on the tables and nut cups were used for place cards and favors. Maxine Burks offered prayer before the dinner.

Jerry Hosterman was the toastmaster and the welcome was given by Romaine Riedel and Alan Karcher responding. Virginia Smith played a piano number and numbers were sung by both the junior boys and the junior girls.

Robert McVay read the senior prophecy and Janet Hufford, the senior will. A humorous skit was given by Gene Von Blon and Kenneth Risley. The Margraff orchestra from Tiffin furnished music for the dance which closed the program.

Miss Helen Powell was the faculty advisor of the juniors and she was given a corsage by the class

The dinner was furnished and prepared by the mothers of the juniors, with Mrs. Charles Shell as chairman.

The graduating class for 1953 includes: John Bell, Janis Corfman, Wayne Dutcher, Nova Giles, Jean Grady, Marlene Harter, Alan Karcher, Ronald Miller, Terry Ransom, Carolyn Riedel, Wayne Solze, James Biller, LaVon Droll, Marian Everhart, Edwin Gingery, Carol Grubb, Shirley Hannum, Marjorie McDermott, Ruth Miller, Larry Reed, Ruth Riedel, Marilyn Smith, Bonny Yentzer and Robert Shook.

The junior class roll is Richard Balliet, Bill Burks, Alicelee Clingman, Mary Lois Grandstaff, Joanne Griffin, Eleanor Hetzel, Janet Hufford, Louise McDermott, Robert McVay, Don Riedel, Kenneth Risley, James Schryer, Vaughan Shell, Virginia Smith, Marlin Weaver, Lowell Breyley, Maxine Burks, Allen Corfman, Gary Gregg, Shirley Hannum, Jerry Hosterman, Sarah Kelly, Carolyn McGinnis, Albert Ohl, Romaine Riedel, Phyllis Ruhlen, Leon Shell, Richard Shellhorn, Gene Von Blon and Irene Wyss.

EUROPEAN countries had, for centuries, built empires in Asia. This trend can be traced back to Alexander the Great, whose forces reached the Burma-Yunnan frontier.

In our times, Portugal, the Netherlands, Great Britain, France and Russia erected important empires in Asia.

The Portuguese empire was dissipated in the fall of the Iberian nations before the power of Great Britain. Except for Goa in India, Macao in China, and Portuguese Timor in Indonesia, the Portuguese ceased to be of any importance before World War I.

Decline in Farm Prices Cause of Alarm to Ohio Farmers, Survey Reveals

Three out of four Ohio farmers are seriously worried about the decline in farm prices, John W. Sims, executive secretary of the Ohio Farm Bureau Federation, today said in Washington in announcing the results of a recent statewide farm poll.

While 56 per cent of the 4,938 Ohio farmers who gave their opinions last week at county "farm price rallies" think that Secretary of Agriculture Benson is "doing a good job," 31 per cent are uncertain and 13 per cent disapprove of his actions, Sims reported.

The Ohio Farm Bureau is in Washington with 40 farm men and women who are its legislative spokesmen and spokeswomen. They come from every congressional district in Ohio and during their two-day stay these farm people are to talk with their senators and congressmen about falling farm prices.

"Ohio farmers want 100 per cent of parity," Sims declared. "They ought to have the same purchasing power as labor and industry. To me parity means equality. If it took two bushels of wheat to buy a pair of overalls in 1930 to 1940, then two bushels of wheat ought to buy a pair of overalls today."

Sims said the poll showed that 91 per cent of Ohio farmers think that they should do all they can for themselves through cooperatives, research, advertising and orderly marketing before they go to the government for help.

However, three out of four farmers, 74 per cent, "believe that there should be a government price support program," Sims revealed. Ten per cent of the farmers are undecided and only 16 per cent are opposed. When a similar question was asked Ohio farmers in January, 1952, 39 per cent of them wanted no government price support program.

Asked to indicate specific support programs, Ohio farmers expressed a wide difference of opinion. There were 28 per cent who thought the government should support farm prices only at a level which would prevent disaster.

Variable price supports of 75 to 90 percent of parity with the secretary of agriculture having authority to make adjustments depending upon production needs won the favor of 32 per cent of those gressional delegation at a breakfast today. Following that they were to talk with Secretary of Agriculture Benson and other farm leaders.

The farm men and women will return to Columbus by plane this evening. They then plan to make reports on their trip in each of their congressional districts.

Represents 8th District At Meeting

Mrs. Florence Bryant of near Nevada is representing the Eighth Congressional District, which includes Marion, at the Washington meeting. She is one of the 40 farm men and women selected throughout Ohio as legislative spokesmen.

The Eighth District includes the following counties: Marion, Morrow, Hardin, Crawford, Wyandot and Hancock.

The Marion County Farm Bureau held its meeting last week at New Bloomington. At that meeting, the local bureau's report was made and given Mrs. Bryant for the Washington trip.

Mrs. Bryant left Sunday and was expected to return to her home today.

The arrest came about after Christian called police at 4:04 p.

Opponents Blast Away At Axle Tax

Battle of Big Trucks On in Ohio Senate; Simpson Leads Fight

COLUMBUS, O. (AP) — The Ohio Senate Taxation Committee wasted little time in an attempt to rip to shreds the House - approved axle-mile tax on big trucks.

It hit upon one "gimmick" which appeared to destroy one selling point stressed by House Republicans: Ease of administration through a minimum of record-keeping by truckers.

The measure to tax heavy trucks was sold to the House last week on the assumption it would raise 19½ million dollars with a tax rate based on the number of miles they travel and the maximum number of axles a truck - tractor ever would haul.

Sen. J. E. Simpson (R-Hardin) raised the $64 question Tuesday night during the Senate Taxation Committee's first hearing on the bill.

After hearing Rep. Robert Johnson (R-Medina) point out the bill makes allowances in the tax rates for the periods in which trucks run empty, Simpson asked Johnson, a co-sponsor of the bill:

"Supposing, the same day, a tractor hauls both a three - axle trailer combination and a four-axle combination. What tax rate would he pay?"

Johnson replied: "He would pay the three-axle rate for the miles he hauled the three-axle rig and the four-axle rate on the four-axle combination.

The reply startled legislative observers who recalled the House Public Affairs Committee voted nearly three weeks ago to levy all truck taxes on the basis of the highest number of axles a tractor ever used.

"That makes bookkeepers of tractor operators who change trailers frequently," Simpson told Johnson.

Members of the House Public Affairs Committee struggled valiantly for many weeks to come up with a bill which would make truckers' record keeping simple. They discarded ton - mile and weight - distance tax plans which involved two changing factors — weight and distance. They figured the two changing factors complicated things too much.

The committee voted, in adopting the axle-mile tax principle, for a problems is completed before attempting further changes.

Spokesmen for Churches

Speaking for the Prospect St. Methodist Church delegation to the meeting, Bernard Brooks, said the parking ban caused a hardship when a funeral was held at the Church because of lack of parking space for cars in the funeral procession.

The Rev. L. L. Zimmerman of the First Church of the Nazarene said he had studied the facts and figures presented by Mayor Robinson, but felt the parking ban had not helped the traffic congestion during the 90-day trial period it had been in effect. He called on Council to grant permission to park on the south side of Church St. at least during church services.

Speaking in favor of the parking ban, Police Captain Hardin said it has helped the movement of traffic east and west through Marion by moving some of the load from Center St. to Church St.

He also said there has been no increase in speeding along Church St. since the parking ban became effective.

Considerable more discussion between members of Council and other city officials followed.

Police Chief Tom Coon said he felt the use of limited parking during the peak hours only would cause a "bad enforcement problem."

He said it would be difficult to keep cars out of the no parking areas during a short period of time, but promised to do everything possible to enforce whatever regulation Council passed.

Chief Coon also told Council that for the police department to properly enforce a limited parking ban would require additional police officers. He said that he felt a minimum of 14 additional police officers is needed in Marion to properly enforce this and other city laws.

Councilman Louis Conkle, fourth ward, said he saw no justification for a 24-hour a day parking ban but felt parking should be limited during the peak hours. Tom Clark, councilman-at-large, asked if Sunday parking on the south side of Church St. but none during the week days would cause an enforcement problem, Coon said it wouldn't.

Businessman's View

C. H. Indoe, of the Indoe Heating and Appliance Co., of 239 E. Church St. said he felt parking should be banned on the south side of the street between about 2 p.m. and 6 p.m. even though it would hurt his business. But, he machine gunners, mortarmen, bazooka-men and riflemen.

Youths joining the Guard from 17 to 18½ years of age are exempt from the draft under the present legislation. They sign up for a three-year period. Men from 17 to 35 are eligible for the Guard. The Guard is a component of the U. S. Army, which is also made up of the regular Army and another component, Reserves.

The local Guard unit meets every Tuesday night at the Armory for a two-hour drill. Members draw regular Army pay. The drills include first aid, drill ceremonies and inspection, military courtesy, tactical training of the individual, civil disturbances, individual weapons and crew served weapons, compass reading and all tactics.

Summer Training Program

In addition to the 48 weekly two-hour drills there are three inactive duty drills which help them to prepare for the annual summer training at Camp Grayling, Mich. The local Guard unit holds its final inactive duty drill shortly with the Marysville Tank Company near Delaware. It will consist of tank infantry tactics.

The regular two-week maneuvers at Camp Grayling will be held July 5-20. The entire Regiment will group there and training stressed will be company and battalion level tactical problems. The local Guard unit will function as part of a battalion of the Regiment.

Over the past week end, Company C members were at Camp Perry, O., for range firing with rifles, carbines, Brownie Automatic Rifles, and pistols. This is done once a year.

National Guardsmen are called out for any domestic disturbance. The local Guard unit spending nine days at the Ohio Penitentiary riot on Halloween is an example of this.

Company Classification

Company C, along with Co. A and B, are rifle companies. Company D is a heavy weapons company.

Marion's Guard unit, Company C, was organized in Marion in February of 1947 with Capt. Robert H. Melby of Marion as commander. He was later transferred to Battalion headquarters S-3 at Columbus, which consists of plans and training.

Prior to World War II, Company D was in Marion. It was activated and later Company M, a state guard, was put here. It was de-activated and then Company C, a national guard of the United

Says Some Stolen Items Were "Found"

Bucyrus Man Denies Theft of Articles In His Possession

William Dale Snavely, 31, of Bucyrus, being held by the Marion County sheriff's office for investigation in connection with an estimated thousand dollars worth of tools, jewelry, guns and other items found in his possession and believed to have been stolen by him over a period of several months, while being questioned Tuesday afternoon claimed he had "found" some of the items.

Sheriff Glenn Obenour said Snavely admitted taking two watches and micrometers from the trailer of Robert Rupert at Twin Oaks Trailer Park on April 11, but denied taking a wallet containing $275 or a pair of trousers, also reported missing from the trailer by Rupert.

Snavely also admitted stealing an expensive camera from a parked car in Marion, but couldn't remember where the car was parked, Obenour said.

The Bucyrus man also denied stealing a set of piano tuning tools belonging to Albert Ensminger, a piano repairman of Bucyrus, claiming he "found" the tools.

Snavely was picked up by the sheriff's office early Sunday morning while driving on E. Fairground St. in the county. After being questioned about several items found in his automobile, Snavely admitted having stolen them. Upon further questioning he admitted having additional items in his home which were later recovered by the sheriff's office.

Sheriff Obenour reported Snavely had been under surveillance by his office for some time.

No charges have been filed against Snavely at noon today.

Police Report One Arrest, Five Accidents

Five no-injury traffic accidents and one traffic arrest were reported today by Marion police.

A car parked at E. Fairground and N. Greenwood St. and owned by Ivan Jordan of 440 Olney Ave. was damaged when struck by a car driven east on E. Fairground St. at 6:40 p.m. Tuesday by Nicholas D. Haubert, 19, of 685 Meadow St. The right front fender of Haubert's car was also damaged.

Cars driven by Herbert H. Conroy, 19, of 321 N. State St. and B. D. Haycox, 28, of 277 Clinton St. were damaged considerably in a collision at Oak and Owens Sts. at 12:52 p.m. Tuesday.

Cars driven by Leo C. Harper, 31, of 465 Ballentine Ave. and C. L. Martin of 404 W. Columbia St. were damaged in a mishap just south of W. Center St. on S. Prospect St. at 5:18 p.m. Tuesday. Police reported both cars were traveling north on S. Prospect St.

The right front fender and headlight of a car driven by Gilbert L. Shepherd, 74, of 227 Windsor St. were damaged in a mishap at W. Church and S. Prospect Sts. at 11:48 a.m. Tuesday. Police said another car driven from a parking space by Arthur E. Haberman, 64, of near Marion and Shepherd's car collided. The left door, side, and rear fender of Haberman's car were also damaged, police reported.

A car driven by Gloria M. Webb of 227½ Windsor St. was damaged when it struck the rear of a car driven by Audrey L. Swartz of 479 E. Center St. and stopped in front of 127 E. Church St. at 6:09 p.m. Tuesday. Mrs. Swartz' car was also damaged.

Only traffic arrest was on a charge of reckless driving placed against Scott Junior Wolford, 22, of near Sabina, O. He was arrested at 12:46 a.m. today on W. Center St. He pleaded guilty in Municipal Court today and was fined $15 and costs.

Stolen Car Stopped In Delaware; 3 Juveniles Held

The long arm of the law did a long stretch today from Marion to Delaware to bring to a halt a speed spree of three Michigan juveniles.

About 4 a.m. today Marion patrolmen Wayne Shepard and Donald Hall were cruising north on N. Main St. when out of the half-light of early morning from the north came a black automobile at a high rate of speed.

The two patrolmen turned their cruiser around and gave chase to the fast moving car. South through Marion the two cars raced paying no heed to traffic lights.

Pushing the police cruiser accelerator to the floor the two policemen were unable to gain on the other car even though they were traveling at 90 miles an hour.

Out into the country on Route 23 the two cars sped. Deciding they would never be able to catch the speeder the two Marion officer radioed ahead to the Delaware police department for assistance.

As the speeding black car roared into Delaware a police cruiser was waiting for it and a near-collision resulted when the driver of the speeding car swung wide to bypass the cruiser blocking his path.

Giving chase, the Delaware police succeeded in halting the speeding car a few blocks down the street.

Investigation revealed the car was stolen from Detroit, Mich. about 10 p.m. Monday night by the occupants of the car—two 14-year-olds and one 16-year old boy.

The trio was returned to Marion and are held in the Marion County Detention Home pending action by Michigan authorities. The car was also towed back to Marion by a Short Ford wrecker.

voting. A year ago January only 14 per cent voted this way.

There was a surprising lack of confidence in the present farm legislation with only 17 per cent of the farmers believing that the government should continue to guarantee 90 percent of parity on basic commodities.

There are some Ohio farmers who think that the government should guarantee 100 per cent of parity on all basic commodities and this was the reply of 15 per cent of those voting. Another eight per cent would extend this government guarantee to cover both storables and perishables. Those who hold this view number about the same as in January, 1952, when 27 per cent asked for 100 per cent government guarantees.

The only other question in the poll dealt with foreign trade. "Farm exports are only about two-thirds of what they were in 1951," Sims reported to farmers last week in a state-wide radio broadcast to the county meetings.

"Do you favor increased foreign trade if it means increased imports of farm products as well as increased exports," the poll question was stated. Yet 59 per cent answered yes, with 21 per cent disagreeing. A sizable 20 per cent could not make up their minds.

Taft "Disappointed" At Ike's Conclusions

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Taft (R-Ohio) said today he is "very much disappointed" at President Eisenhower's conclusions that this nation could not spend less than 50 billion dollars a year on defense and foreign aid.

Taft, the Senate majority leader, made this comment in a talk at a breakfast of Ohio farmers

Such expenditures, Taft said, would mean an overall government budget of possibly 72 billion dollars annually. 3

If this is true, Taft said, "there is no way to escape taxes, deficit spending or both."

Taft said this problem should be studied to see whether 40 billion might be enough to spend for security.

AFL Chafes Under GOP Administration

WASHINGTON (AP) — The American Federation of Labor seems headed for an open break with the Eisenhower administration and may move in that direction at a strategy meeting opening today.

The AFL's powerful 15-member Executive Council gathered amid considerable grumbling over the way things are going under the Republican regime.

Besides considering politics and pending legislation in Congress, including moves to change the Taft-Hartley labor law, the council was expected to decide what to do about its crime-tainted member union, the International Longshoremen's Association (ILA).

Bitter Tax Fight Looms In Congress

WASHINGTON (AP)—Congressional leaders today forecast a quick and bitter battle over President Eisenhower's request for extension of the excess profits tax on corporations for another six months.

The President outlined this and four other tax steps in his nationwide radio speech last night. He snuffed out hope for immediate tax cuts and called instead for continued high revenues to keep "our nation secure and our dollar sound . . . in an age of danger.'

His plea brought a mixed and wary reaction in Congress. Some leaders said the outcome appears in doubt, but that Eisenho might get what he asked for after a tough fight. Detailed recommendations will be sent to Congress shortly, perhaps today.

The President requested a six-month extension of the excess profits tax, now scheduled to die in exactly six weeks. And he asked Congress to repeal cuts of three billion dollars in regular corporation income taxes and excise (sales) taxes on scores of items which are scheduled to take effe automatically next March 31.

He spoke strongly against a drive in the House to cut personal income taxes 10 per cent starting July 1. He called instead for letting the 10 per cent rate cut take effect Jan. 1, as scheduled under present law.

The President offered to forego one minor tax increase. He proposed to keep social security taxes at the present rate of 1½ per cent of payrolls on both individuals and employers. Present laws call for a stepup to 2 per cent for both groups Jan. 1. Since social security taxes are levied on only the first $3,600 of income, this would benefit a worker no more than $18 a year.

His over-all program would provide an additional billion dollars in revenue for the year starting July 1, but still leave an estimated deficit of about 5½ billion dollars for the first full fiscal year of his administration.

Eisenhower said he would cut at least 4½ billions from the spending plans left by former President Truman.

OFF TO JAPAN

NEW YORK (AP)—Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt left by plane for Los Angeles early today on the first leg of a tour of Japan and visits to several European countries.

said, he opposed the 24-hour a day parking restriction.

Safety - Service Director Forrest called on Council to continue the parking ban. He said heavy traffic from West Side industrial plants has moved over to Church St. since the parking restriction went into effect. This has relieved the load on Center St. and has helped relieve downtown traffic congestion, he said.

Council then recessed and after a meeting behind closed doors with Mayor Robinson, Forrest, Chief Coon, and Captain Hardin returned to the meeting room and voted to restrict parking during the three-hour period from 3 to 6 p.m. only.

Actually Opposed to It

Councilman Harold Fralich, sixth ward, who voted for the amended ordinance, said later that even though he voted for it he was opposed to it. He said he was in favor of continuing the 24-hour a day parking ban. His reason for voting for the ordinance, he said, was to permit the regulation to go into effect immediately. Had he not done so, the ordinance would have gotten only six votes and could not have gone into effect for 30 days. During this period there would have been no parking regulation at all on that section of Church St. and it was to prevent this lack of regulation that Fralich voted for the ordinance, he said.

Water Mains Authorized

Water mains authorized by Council are to be located on the new section of Blaine Ave. south of Duluth Ave. to Thew Ave.; on Thew Ave. from Blaine Ave. to Prospect St. and on Prospect St. from Thew Ave. to Smith St.

Other new mains are to be installed on Whitmore St. from S. Prospect St. to the new General Hospital site.

Fire hydrants to be installed will be located at the discretion of Fire Chief Owen A. Sifritt at the approximate locations as follows: At Hawthorne and Prospect Sts.; at Blaine and Thew Aves. and on Whitmore St. at its intersection with the hospital site.

Alley Vacated

The alley vacated is one originally vacated in 1850 but no records of this vacation was made.

The Montgomery and Ward store is now located on the site. Council passed the vacation ordinance Tuesday night to clarify the records for tax purposes.

Absent from the meeting was Councilman - at - Large Robert G. Haldeman. Councilman Herman Rinehart, third ward, was present for part of the meeting but left before the vote was taken on the Church St. parking regulation.

A break-in at the Alco Dry Cleaning Store at 128 S. State St. sometime after 5:20 a m. today was reported to Marion police this morning by Richard Meninger, manager.

Police Chief Tom Coon said entrance was gained by breaking out the front door glass and reaching through and unlocking the door.

Inside, clothing hanging on racks was torn down and scattered about on the floor and a metal box of undetermined value was stolen. Chief Coon said it is not known what the contents of the box were.

He said information given police from an unnamed source set the time of the break-in at sometime after 5:20 a m.

The World Today

Ike Warns Russians

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eiesnhower seemed clearly to be talking to the Russians as well as the American people last night in his radioi talk explaining the reductions he wants to make in defense spending.

Eisenhower declared the American armed forces he has in mind would be for defense, not aggression. He used the word "defense" four times in the first three paragraphs of his speech. The word ran through the whole speech.

He stressed that the only reason for big armed forces at all is the threat of "planned Communist aggression." And he said this country could win a war with Russia if it had to mobilize.

But his emphasis upon the peaceful and defensive nature of this country's armed forces—at the very moment he spoke of spending less money on them—could not be lost on the Russians.

It was almost as if he was reassuring the Russians they had nothing to fear from the U. S., unless they attacked, that the reduced spending was proof of it, and therefore they could start cutting down on their armed forces.

Secretary of Defense Wilson in the past week, as if setting the stage for the Eisenhower talk last night, has hit on the same theme: the purely defensive nature of the armed forces planned by the Eisenhower administration.

Last week Wilson told a news conference he had in mind the kind of armed force that could hold off an attack until this country had time to mobilize.

Yesterday he testified before a Senate appropriations subcommittee which is trying to find out why Wilson wants to cut billions off the money for the Air Force. He said:

"We are not building up a big military machine to attack somebody." But a couple of Democrats who are not enthusiastic about Wilson's idea of more security for less money—Senators Hill of Alabama and Maybank of South Carolina—pressed him hard.

They wanted to know whether the Air Force he had in mind could attack, if need be, as well as defend. Wilson said this country is building "some fine new bombers" and he thinks this country has more long-range bombers than Russia.

But Wilson conceded his ideas on the kind of Air Force the U. S. needs weren't quite the same as those of the chief of the Air Force, Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg. He said Vandenberg didn't "specifically approve."

Since Eisenhower frankly said his defense program is a "calculated risk"—that is, he hopes it will be able to protect this country adequately if war comes—only time will show his wisdom or lack of it.

During the presidential campaign Eisenhower may have had high hopes of cutting government expenses so much the budget could be balanced and taxes reduced.

He kissed those hopes goodby publicly last night. Acknowledging he can't cut expenses enough to wipe out the deficit this year, he said he wants no tax cuts either, since reduced taxes would mean an even bigger deficit.

Right there he knew he may now run into real trouble within his own party. A number of Republicans are bent on trimming taxes in 1953.

Until now Eisenhower has enjoyed an astonishingly tranquil presidency. It was as if on all sides there was tacit agreement to be gentle with him until he could get his feet on the ground and find out where he stood.

But now that he has stated positively his position, his leadership ability as president will begin to get its test, for he will have to defend his program and fight for it or see it shot to pieces.

So at this point—where he may at last have to step into the ring and slug it out even with members of his own party and can only hope time will prove him right in what he proposes—his honeymoon is over.

Before there were clocks in England, the king's cock crower solemnly crowed the hours around the king's palace, but he has not operated since 1714.

Brick Building, Present Home, Soon To Be Vacated, Of Marion

Y.M.C.A.

139 S. State St.

Sealed bids will be received until Wednesday, May 27, 1953, at 2 o'clock, P.M., at office of Secretary, 139 S. State St., Marion, O. Property will go to highest offer consistent with reasonable opinion of basic worth of valuable real estate and old but sound building.

CERTIFIED CHECK OF 5% WITH BIDS

Inasmuch as the new Y building is nearing completion and the proceeds obtainable from the present property is a necessary factor in the overall financing, it is the desire of the Directors of the Marion Y. M. C. A. that a prompt disposition of the asset be effected. Therefore, the idea of offering the old Y real estate for "Sealed Bids," through publicity over a wide area, seems an expedient way to reach a satisfactory conclusion.

Informed opinions have been optimistic of the investment merit of the old Y property, because of the relatively good location of the site of 66'x171', with a 16-foot alley side and rear, and the developing circumstances that favorably influence and affect it.

The three-story brick building, which is structurally sound, has a functional potential that is quite interesting: the total area of over 30,000 square feet suggests many practical plans that could be profitably utilized.

The spectacular, but substantial, progress of Marion in the past decade is of added significance to investors experienced in the essential elements that spell stability and enhancement in all realty investments. Groundwork has been laid for a strong, steady expansion of unpredictable scope, and high confidence in Marion's bright prospects is attested, in just one of many instances, by the proposed $2,000,000, Shopping Center about to be erected on the former Junior High School site on West Center Street, all units already having been leased, for long periods, to leading Chain Store organizations. The city's tremendous industrial growth the past few years is common knowledge. Now YOU have an exceptional opportunity to invest in Marion's promising future.

Although right is reserved to reject any and all bids, the Y Directors wish it to be understood that an acceptable figure is one that will be extremely attractive to prospective investors and not unfair to the interests of the institution.

Inspection and investigation invited. See Art. Haas, General Secretary, or the following members of the Real Estate Committee:

Beightler Back, Pike Job Believed Waiting

COLUMBUS, O. (AP)—The return of Maj. Gen. Robert S. Beightler, former commander of Ohio's 37th Infantry Division, to Columbus increases speculation today he would be appointed executive director of the Ohio Turnpike Commission.

He said he and his wife were in town for a 30-day visit. But one of the first things he did Tuesday was to visit the office of the commission and Chairman James W. Shocknessy.

Several of the commission members reportedly want Beightler, a former head of the state highway department, for the job. However, the 61-year-old officer suffered a heart attack last winter and his health may not permit him to take the job if it is offered.

DULLES IN INDIA

NEW DELHI, India (AP)—U. S. Secretary of State Dulles and Foreign Aid Chief Stassen started their two-day visit to India today with calls on Prime Minister Nehru and at the site of Mohandas Gandhi's cremation. Aides said Dulles and Nehru may get down to particulars tomorrow.

C of C Reports On Survey Of Business Factors

Bank debits and auto sales declined, but postal receipts were higher in April than in March. The monthly survey of business factors in Marion prepared by the Chamber of Commerce showed today.

Bank debits, which came to $45,993,514 in April, amounted to $46,543,543 in March. Figure for April of 1952 was $30,766,729.

Postal receipts jumped over both March and April of 1952 figures. They amounted to $79,996 last month, compared to $60,721 in March and $58,110 in April of 1952.

Sale of new cars, used cars and new trucks were on the decrease from March. New car sales totaled 193 last month, compared to 211 in March and 132 in April of 1952. Used cars came to 438 last month. Figure for March was 454 and sales in April of 1952 amounted to 416. A total of 17 new trucks were sold last month, a decrease from March and April of 1952 when 18 and 21, respectively, were sold.

Senate Votes Down Control Power for Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Senate has killed a proposal to allow the President to clamp on economic controls for 90 days in the event of a grave national emergency.

It passed yesterday, 45-41, and sent to the House a stripped-down version of the present Defense Production Act minus any real controls power for the President.

The President had specifically not asked for the freeze power. He simply said he would accept it.

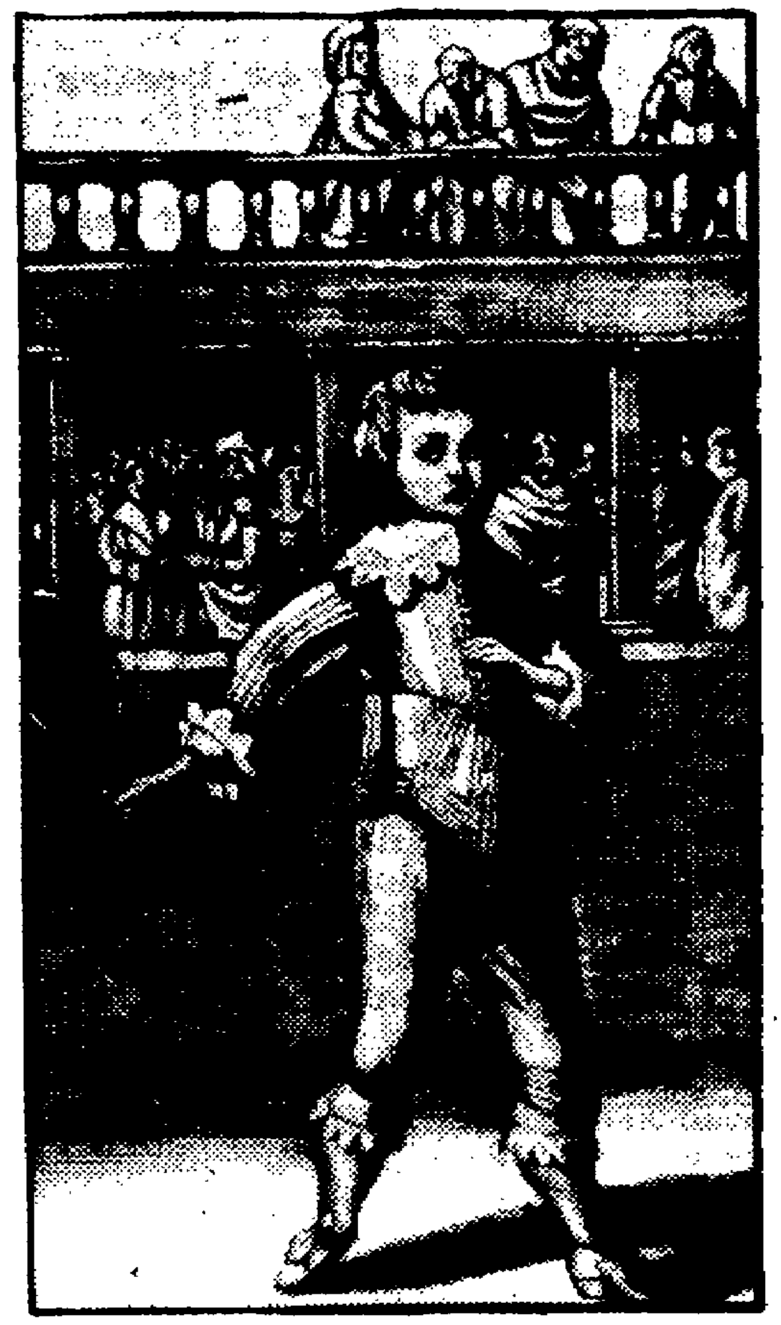
CROWN CAVALCADE

The PREDECESSORS of ELIZABETH II

No. 27: James II. Ruled England, Scotland (as James VII) and Ireland, 1685-1688.



James R

James II, as a youth, playing tennis, a game that became popular in the 16th and 17th centuries among those of means.

Born: 1633, second surviving son of Charles I and Henrietta Maria. Succeeded his brother, Charles II. As a ruler James mismanaged almost every political problem with which he dealt. Yet, as Lord High Admiral, prior to his accession, he was an able commander and an excellent administrator who thoroughly organized the royal navy. Also before his accession he developed an interest in colonization and trade that proved of consequence. His titles Duke of York and Albany, are perpetuated in the names of New York and its capital city. James made a momentous choice in 1672 when he turned away from the Church of England. He underestimated the political strength of its leaders and was the loser in a struggle that ended in his deposition and exile. James had eight children by his first wife, Anne Hyde, only two of which, Mary and Anne (both later queens) survived him. By his second wife, Mary of Modena, he had seven. He fathered at least four by mistresses.

Naguib Urges Egyptians to Get Ready for War

CAIRO, Egypt (AP)—Premier Maj. Gen. Mohamed Naguib urged the Egyptian people last night to prepare for a "death or life' fight to drive British troops from the Suez Canal zone. He spoke as the British Army announced the arrival of reinforcements for its huge canal base.

In a broadcast to the nation, the Egyptian Premier declared, "We shall not open the battle before we are fit and ready." Warning that it would not be an easy fight, Na-on an actual case history from the files of the mission, telling the story of a youthful alcoholic who "turns to God out of the depths of spiritual and physical need." James Hughes has the leading role. Picture time Friday will be 7:45 p.m. The release here is sponsored by the Maranatha Bible Church.

Atomic Shell To Be Fired Next Monday

LAS VEGAS, Nev. (AP)—The Army and the Atomic Energy Commission today began final preparations for the long-awaited firing next Monday of a nuclear shell from the nations new 280-mm. cannon.

The date for the historic shot was set yesterday, a few hours after the ninth blast of the spring series jolted communities in three states.

Radioactivity from the drifting atomic cloud contaminated nearly 100 vehicles in Utah and Nevada. The AEC said the radiation was not hazardous, but it nonetheless paid for giving the machines a precautionary washing.

Cars, trucks and buses were halted at check points in the Nevada towns of Alamo, Mesquite, Glendale and North Las Vegas, and in St. George and Cedar City, Utah.

The 4,500 residents of St. George were advised to stay indoors from 9 a. m. to noon.

Police in California cities as far as 400 miles from the proving grounds reported the shock was one of the heaviest ever felt. Many residents thought it was an earthquake. There was no damage.

British Ship Goes Aground, 31 Saved

TOKYO (AP)—A U. S. Navy troop transport today rescued 31 crewmen from the British motorship Lady Wolmer, which ran aground near Cheju Island off the southern tip of Korea, Navy headquarters announced.

The Wolmer, a frequent trader with Communist China, called for help after running aground only 50 yards off Cheju and the Navy transport Henrico steamed to her assistance.

Use Scare Treatment On Tuberculosis

Find Fright Causes Glandular Action That Fights Disease

By RENNIE TAYLOR
AP Science Reporter

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Fright apparently is good medicine for some tubercular people.

Several cases in which a good scare favorably turned the course of treatment for sanitarium patients were reported to the National Tuberculosis Association today by a group of Seattle physicians.

The frightening episodes were brought on accidentally, but the results were so striking that the doctors now plan to use it scientifically as an experimental means of treatment.

This strange finding was the result of experiments to determine what part the adrenal gland plays in the role of the disease. The work was done by Dr. Edmund R Clarke, Dr. Daniel W. Zahn and Dr. Thomas H. Holmes of Firland Sanitarium, Seattle.

The adrenal glands, which are cap-like formations atop the kidneys, produce adrenalin, a hormone which the body uses in large quantities during periods of anger, fright or other forms of mental stress. During calm periods this hormone is produced and utilized at relatively low levels.

The Seattle doctors measured the amount of adrenal activity of 109 patients by chemical tests. They found that it varied widely according to the individuals' mental state.

People with basically low levels of adrenal activity, they found, appeared to have more serious TB cases than those with high levels. Low adrenal functioning went along with discouragement and apathy. A high rate was accompanied by tenseness, rapid heartbeat, high blood pressure, sweating of the palms and restlessness.

One patient, Dr. Clarke said, was being kept alive by great effort, and a part of the treatment included injections with a hypodermic needle. He became so angered at being jabed repeatedly with the needle that his adrenal functioning took a big jump. Anger affects the adrenals much the same as fright. The patient now is on the road to recovery and early release from the hospital.

She has served in many foreign capitals.

Chairmen of Legion Poppy Sale Listed

Mrs. Peter Joyce and Mrs. Getis Harraman are serving as chairmen for the American Legion poppy sale to be held Friday and Saturday in downtown Marion. Mrs. Joyce represents the Auxiliary to GI Post No. 584, American Legion, and Mrs. Harraman represents the Auxiliary to Bird-McGinnis Post No. 162, Legion.

The sale will start at 8 a.m. Friday and continue until 9 o'clock in the evening. About 50 workers from the two units will be in the downtown area during the day to receive contributions. The money is used for disabled veterans and their families. The mayor has issued a proclamation urging the people of Marion to support the poppy sale.

Headquarters for the sale will be set up in the 40 et 8 boxcar at the west side of the Courthouse.

HeatingContractor To Move Location

Robert E. Williams, plumbing and heating contractor in Marion for the past seven years, is to move his place of business this week to 600 Bellefontaine Ave.

His present location is at the rear of 364 N. State St. Formal opening of the new location had been scheduled for Friday and Saturday. The store will be open from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. for the opening.

Williams said the building had been remodeled and includes a large showroom for display purposes.

Retail Grocers Assoc. Gives $100 to YMCA

County Organization Votes Pledge At Business Meeting

The Marion County Retail Grocers' Association today announced a $100 pledge to the YMCA fund campaign. The gift was approved by the 25 members of the group at a business meeting Monday night.

The Retail Grocers Association is made up of grocers throughout the county in a plan of co-operative buying, advertising and selling in an effort to bring lower food prices in stores in all neighborhoods. It has been in operation for the past year.

Jimme Bull, operator of Jimmie's Super-Ette at 264 Elm St., is president of the organization. Joe Nicolosi, owner of Joe's Market at 241 Silver St., is first vice president and the second vice president is Harold Windom of Windom's Grocery at 215 N. Main St. Frank Moore, operator of the Claridon General Store, is third vice president. Mrs. Jennie Ulsh of Fletcher's Market at 766 Mt. Vernon Ave. is secretary and treasurer is Floyd Rieser, owner of Rieser's Grocery at 264 Uncapher Ave. William Haberman, operator of Haberman's Super Market at New Bloomington is chairman of the board of directors.

During the meeting, distribution of prizes to young people throughout the county in a special drawing held by the association was announced. The winners were drawn from a hopper by Mayor Harold F. Robinson. Children taking part in the drawing had placed their names in containers at the various member stores and the winners were drawn from the entire group.

First prize winner, drawn by Mayor Robinson, was Jerry Stineman of 598 Herman St. He received a bicycle. Roger McNamara of 314 Silver St. won second vice prize, a jeep. Other winners were Ray Mitchell of 219 Uncapher Ave., and Danny Cafagno of 411 Park Blvd., bicycles. Five children who were awarded gun and holster sets were Tommie Lewis of 144 Sharpless Ct., Dale Dutton of near Prospect, Michael Ault of near Morral, Margaret Hennessee of New Bloomington and Butch Glenn of New Bloomington.

Guests at the meeting, in addition to Mayor Robinson, were Ralph Forrest, safety-service director, Frank Bruno, Bud Flesch, Jack Davis and W. E. Law.

French Face New Crisis Over Cabinet

PARIS (AP)—Premier Rene Mayer threatened France with another cabinet crisis last night. He said he would resign unless the National Assembly gives his government the right to cut administrative expenses by decree.

The Premier made his demand in the form of a confidence vote and the Assembly recessed immediately after his speech. The vote was set for tomorrow.

In Memory

Of Harry Peifer, he passed away two years ago May 20.

Why did he go when life seemed fair,
And no dark clouds were near,
To Dim the brightness of our lives
Or start the bitter tears.
We thought not at the close of day,
When night veiled earth and sky,
That one so full of life and hope,
Would breathe his last goodbye.

Sadly missed by his wife and Children and Grandchildren

There was no company statement on the matter.

Lowe and the women started their war of endurance before noon yesterday when the six housewives and a seventh woman showed up to protest the eviction scheduled today of the first Negro tenants at the Metropolitan's Parkchester housing development in the Bronx.

The seven women, two Negroes and five white, waited five hours before Lowe agreed to see them. They talked with him for an hour, and then six of the women pulled chains and padlocks from their purses. The seventh woman, who is white remained free to act as a messenger for the others.

Churchmen To Keep Eye On Congress

15-Man Council Committee Named To Guard Freedoms

CHICAGO (AP) — The National Council of the Churches of Christ in the U. S. A. today named a 15-member committee to watch developments in Congress and elsewhere which "threaten the freedom of the people and institutions of the United States."

Appointment of the "Committee on the Maintenance of American Freedom" was announced at the bimonthly meeting of the council's General Board, the organization's interim policy-making body, by President William C. Martin of Dallas, Tex.

Bishop Martin, in a statement, expressed his personal hope that the committee "will help the churches to recognize any threat of Communist infiltration into American life."

"No body of people is more concerned to combat communism than the church groups of our country," Bishop Martin said. "If any Communists are carrying on their subversive work under the guise of serving the church, all who have a responsibility for leadership in the church should insist that such deception shall be exposed."

Bishop Martin's appointments were authorized by the council's General Board at a meeting in New York City in March. Heading the committee is the Rt. Rev. Henry Knox Sherrill, presiding bishop of the Episcopal church. Bishop Sherrill was the first president of the council, a federation of 30 Christian churches which claims more than 35 million members.

The council's president, who also is the newly elected president of the Council of Bishops of the Methodist church, contended there is a "right way and a wrong way to combat communism.'

"The right way," Bishop Martin said, "is to stand without compromise for Christian truth and action and to point out clearly and concretely every area of conflict.

"The wrong way is to pin a Communist label on social liberals and advocates of reform—a procedure widely resorted to today. Such methods create confusion of mind in which many people no longer distinguish between communism and honest social criticism in the old-fashioned American way. Such confusion plays into the hands of the Communists and aids the ene-by the wrong methods of dealing with communism that they ignore the danger of communism itself. I am sure that the committee will deal efectively with both aspects of the problem."

ENVOY TO CUBA. New U. S. ambassador to Cuba is Arthur Gardner, Grosse Pointe, Mich., shown at his desk in Washington following nomination by President Eisenhower. Gardner, a banker and manufacturer, is first vice president and chief of Washington office of Bundy Tubing company, and a partner in Anderson and Gardner, investment banking.

Mailman And Wife Walk A Lot During Day

CLEVELAND (AP)—How far does a housewife walk each day in doing her work around the house? and how about a mailman?

As part of National Foot Health Week, they strapped pedometers to the ankles of Adam Falzarano, a mailman, and his wife, Jeanette, a housewife.

The instrument ticked off 21 miles for Falzarano and eight for his housewife.

The couple started out at 6:30 a. m., with Falzarano hoofing four miles in his postal station and 17 on his route. His wife's duties consisted of cleaning the house, tidying up the basement and preparing three meals.

A generation ago, most hogs were fed for 10 to 16 months before going to market while today many hogs are marketed after five or six months.

$300 Million Slash In Funds to Delay New VA Hospitals

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Eisenhower administration has cut close to 300 million dollars from new Veterans Administration appropriations of $4,575,000,000 requested by former President Truman.

If sustained by Congress, the reduction in funds for the year beginning July 1 could mean that the start of work on new hospitals planned in Cleveland, San Francisco, Topeka and Washington, D. C., would be deferred.

The revised Eisenhower estimates, still preliminary, have been submitted to a House appropriations subcommittee headed by Rep. Phillips (R-Calif).

Phillips said they amount to a cut of about 288 million dollars which the subcommittee probably will hike to around 300 million.

Taft in Hospital For Treatment

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Taft of Ohio, the Senate republican leader, entered Walter Reed Medical Center today for an X-ray and treatment of a hip that has been causing him pain.

Office aides said the hip had been bothering him recently, and that he had visited the hospital several times for treatment.

The said he expects to be in the hospital several says.

Sen. Knowland (R-Calif), chairman of the Senate GOP Policy Committee, acted as majority leader when the Senate met.

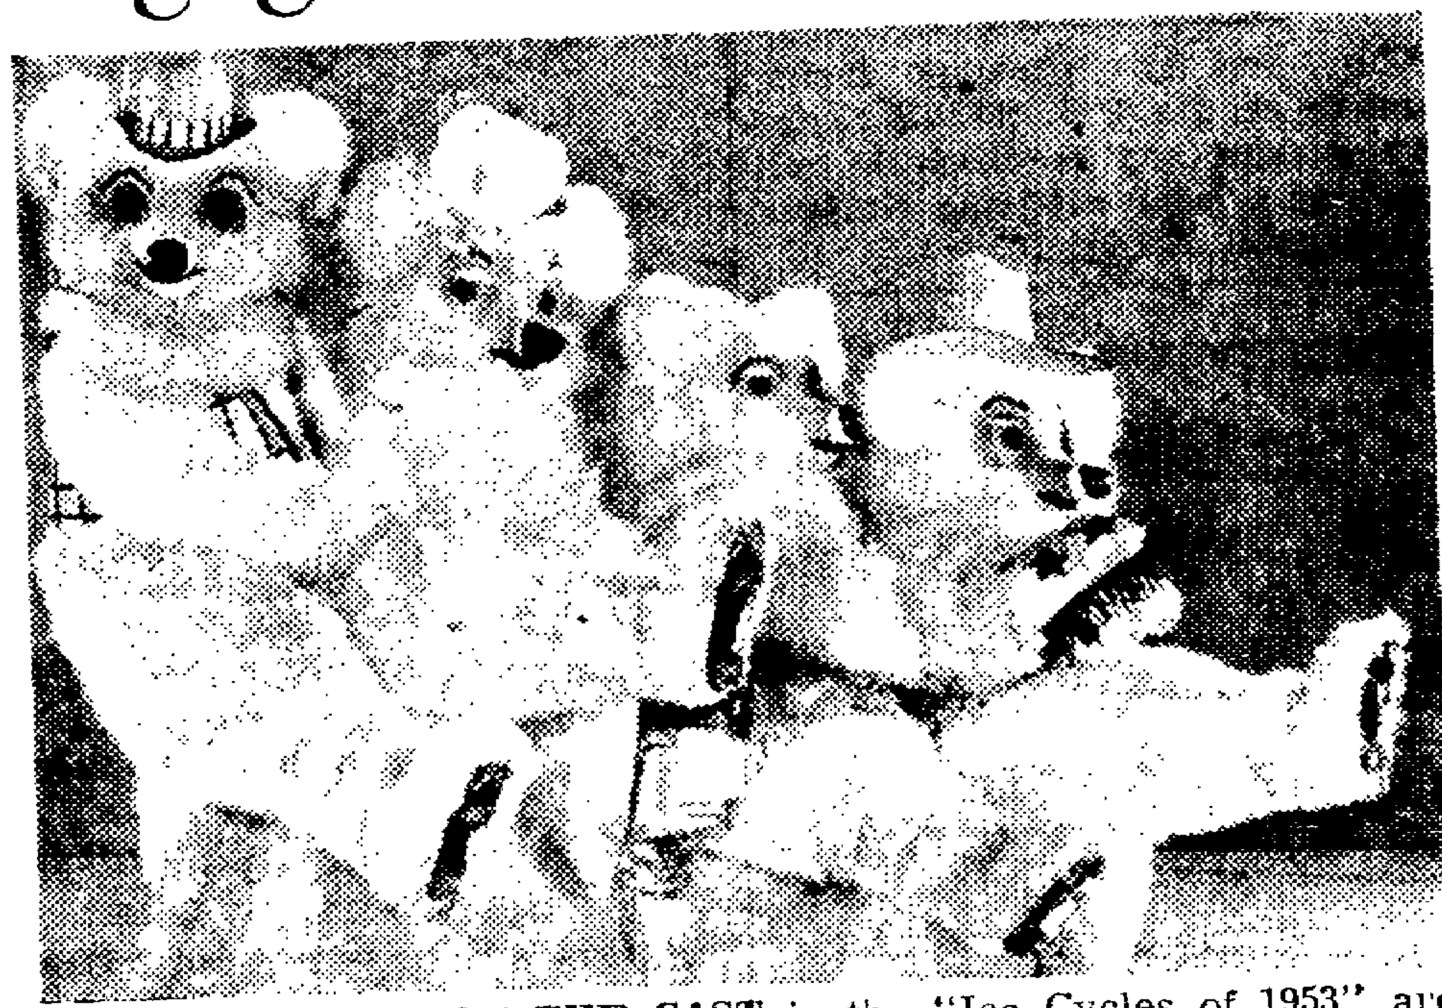
Ice Cycles Open Five-Day Engagement Here Tonight



FOUR MEMBERS OF THE CAST in the "Ice Cycles of 1953" are shown here dressed for their featured "Teddy Bear Picnic" number of the show. The Ice Cycles open a five-night stand at the Coliseum tonight at 8. The program will continue nightly through Sunday with a matinee Sunday afternoon.

The "Ice Cyles of 1953" open tonight at 8 p.m. at the Coliseum for a five-day stand.

Members of the Cycles cast arrived this morning from Troy, O., where they ended an engagement Tuesday night, and were given a welcome to the city by Mayor Harold F. Robinson.

A motor parade arranged by the "Ice Cycles" staff and the Short-Ford Co. preceded the welcome. Stars of the show rode in convertibles from the automobile company's showrooms on N. Main St. through the downtown area beginning at 2 p.m.

Mayor Robinson rode in a car which is to be used to pace this year's 500-mile Indianapolis race.

The parade ended at the courthouse, where Mayor Robinson conducted a ceremony of welcome at 2:15 p.m., presenting Margaret Field, star of the show's "Cinderella" number, with a bouquet of flowers. She in turn presented him with a gift on behalf of the troupe.

"Ice Cycles" performances will be given every night beginning tonight, at 8 p.m. through Sunday, when a 2:30 p.m. matinee will also be given.

money needed to meet this program.

"Such an analysis rejects the extreme arguments of enthusiasts and of all groups of special pleaders . . .

"But this I do assure you: what has been so carefully, so painstakingly evolved is a sound program. It contemplates in each of the armed forces calculated risks which have been prudently reasoned. And it represents, in my judgment, what is best for our nation's permanent security . . .

"Our revised budget will provide the Air Force with more than 40 per cent of all defense funds programmed for 1954," he said. "As of this June 30, the Air Force will have available a sum totaling more than 40 billion dollars. Buttressing this strength are those additional funds allocated to naval air power for 1954—totaling more than half of the Navy budget.

"This means that almost 60 cents out of every dollar to be available for national defense in the next year will be devoted to air power and air defense.'

Etta Rife Williams. His marriage was to Miss Grace Twining in 1919. He was a veteran of World War I. He came to Carey in 1919, and prior to his retirement several years ago, was a foreman with the National Lime & Stone Co. here.

Surviving with his widow are the following children: Robert Williams of Upper Sandusky; Mrs. Audrey Boling of Alexandria, Va.; Mrs. Butcher at home; Mrs. Barbara Peirson of Carey and Richard Williams at home. Richard was graduated from the Carey High School in exercises held Tuesday night. Surviving also are nine grandchildren, one brother Chauncey Williams of Columbus, and three sisters, Mrs. Alice Cole of Mt. Blanchard, Mrs. George Eatherton of Wharton and Mrs. Samuel Nichols of Lancaster.

Private funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Thursday in the Goff Funeral Home here. The Rev. Samuel Shockey, pastor of Memorial EUB Church will officiate and burial will be made in Spring Grove Cemetery.

Cardington

The annual mother-daughter party of the Center WSWS was held at Pompey Community House. The guests were welcomed by Mrs. Mary Kanable and the response was given by Mrs. Ruth Van Houten. Mrs. Carl Smith had devotions. A varied program in keeping with Mother's Day was given. Mrs. Stella Ferguson was the guest speaker.

—:—

Mother's Day was observed at the regular meeting of Olentangy Temple, Pythian Sisters. Flowers were presented to Mrs. Maude Watkins, the oldest mother present and Mrs. Julia Coomer, the youngest mother present. The social hour was in charge of Mrs. Daisy Claytor, Mrs. Julia Coomer and Mrs. Margaret Welch.

—:—

The Loyal Neighbors Club toured the Nestles Milk Co. plant at Marysville and also the Women's Reformatory last Wednesday.

—:—

Twelve young lady students from the high schools at Sparta, Marengo and Cardington recently attended a tea sponsored by the Morrow County Medical Society. The tea was held at the home of Mrs. F. M. Hartsook in Cardington. Miss Florence Johnson, director of nurses from the Board of Education at Columbus, was the main speaker and gave a talk, which was of special interest to girls planning to make nursing a career.

Thirty-five members of Cardington High School senior class, accompanied by Superintendent and Mrs. J. L. Patterson and Mr. and Mrs. Dennis Bell will leave Saturday on a six-day trip to Baltimore, Gettysburg and Washington, D. C.

They also expect to visit Arlington National Cemetery, Mt. Vernon, Alexandria, Va., and the Skyline Drive before returning home. The class is the sixth to take the Washington trip.

Initiation Is Featured In Club Program

Initiatory ceremonies for six new members of the Rotary Club were conducted in the club's weekly luncheon meeting at Hotel Harding, Tuesday.

The initiation was conducted by Don A. Howard, past president of the club. The six new members are George Krohe, Dr. Charles Wilson, Samuel Wood, Maury Cornell, William Charle' and Robert Van Sickle.

In addition to the initiation, a special program feature was given by the Harding High School "German band," a group of the Harding band members. They played several numbers. Their appearance before the Rotary Club was arranged by the Harding High School instrumental music director, Homer Huffman.

Presiding during the program was Edgar W. Barnhart, the club's program chairman for May.

Visiting Rotarians were Dee Dunham of Cardington, Robert C. Fenwick Jr. of Delaware, and George F. Leatherman of Findlay. Guests of the club included Wayne Pierson of Grand Rapids, Mich., Charles Elliott of Hartford, Conn., Bobby Taylor of Lynchburg, Va., John Smallshaw and James Hendy of Cleveland, Robert W. Kirk of Findlay, and J. F. Brashares of Marion.

OES Chapter Holds Memorial Service

A memorial service for 13 members who died during the past year was held at a meeting of Lydia Chapter No. 83, Order of Eastern Star, Monday night at the Masonic Temple. A vocal solo, "My God and I," was sung by Mrs. William Stanbro, a member of Mary Lenox Chapter of LaRue, accompanied by Harold F. Denzer Jr. of Marion, after which each officer placed a stock of white snapdragon in a container of greenery in front of the pedestal to the east in memory of a departed member. The memoriam was given by Ralph E. Carhart, after which Mrs. Stanbro sang "The Lord's Prayer." Initiatory work will be conferred at the next meeting, June 1.

Shrimp Louisiana Is Colorful, Tasty Dish

In spring a woman's fancy turns to party-giving. With the abundance of spring blossoms it's easy to make the house look festive and with advance planning a good meal can be served with small expenditure of time and trouble. This shrimp Louisiana is one colorful and appealing way to please both hostess and guests.

SHRIMP LOUISIANA

Ingredients: 4 tablespoons butter, ½ cup coarsely chopped onion, 1 1/3 cups precooked rice, 1 teaspoon salt, ¼ cup green pepper strips (½ inch), 2 cups shrimp, cooked and peeled, 2 cups water, 2 tablespoons finely chopped parsley.

Method: Melt butter in chafing dish over direct heat. Add onion and cook until lightly browned. Add rice, salt and pepper strips. Saute 3 to 5 minutes, or until browned, stirring frequently. Add shrimp and water. Simmer 5 minutes.

Now place the pan over hot water jacket, cover and let set 5 minutes or until rice has absorbed water. Add parsely. Blend. Serve at once with Worcestershire sauce. Makes 4 servings.

Note: Shrimp Louisiana may be cooked, in a skillet or saucepan and then turned into the chafing dish to keep warm until ready to serve.

DIES AT CLYDE

CLYDE, O. (AP)—Funeral services will be held Thursday for Col. Ewing G. Wells, 64, only Democratic mayor of this village in recent times. Wells, mayor in 1950-51, was stricken with a heart ailment, died Tuesday. His 33 years of Army service included world War I and II. With his wife he operated Plymouth Shore Camp for girls at Port Clinton.

U.S. Correspondent Ordered Out of Iran

TEHRAN, Iran (AP)—The governmen announced Tuesday it is expelling Marc Purdue, Associated Press corresondent, for sending abroad what it called "false and provocative news against the interests of Iran."

Hossein Fatemi, foreign minister, said Purdue has received notice to leave Iran within three days. He gave no details of the government's charge.

"Story of Ohio" Program Given At PTA Meeting

"The Story of Ohio," in honor of Ohio's sesquicentennial observance, was the program theme at a meeting of the Glenwood School PTA Tuesday night, May 12, at the school. It was presented by pupils of the fourth, fifth and sixth grades.

The program depicted Ohio in the early Indian days, the coming of the pioneers, and Ohio becoming a state in 1803. The story of Johnny Appleseed was portrayed, famous men of Ohio were reviewed, and a skit, "Ohio Today," completed the program. Mrs. Rhea Dotson was pianist.

Ivan Brown conducted devotions, reading the 23rd Psalm. Mrs. Gerald Persinger, new president, presided and presented a past president's pin to Mrs. James Crabtree. Mrs. Persinger announced committee chairmen for the new year as follows: Mrs. Mary Alice O'Brien, program; Mrs. Louise Lister, devotions; Mrs. Clare Johnson, health; Mrs. Esther Crabtree, membership; Mrs. Thelma Greer, publicity and radio; Mrs. Rosalie Pritchard, magazine; Mrs. Marilyn Smart, welfare; Mrs. Richard Walter and Mrs. Elmer Heller, social; Mrs. William Parmer Jr., budget and finance; Mrs. Rhea Dotson and Mrs. Willis Holloway, music; Mrs. Mary Louise Elsasser, hospitality; Mrs. Betty Leffler, legislation; Mrs. Harold Dowler, home and family life.

Prior to the development of the oil industry after World War II, the chief revenue of Saudi Arabia was a tax on pilgrims traveling to the Moslem holy cities of Mecca and Medina.

Gets Unwanted Help With Voting Machine

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Mrs. Evelyn Rice, 30, drew the curtain on a voting machine and was all set to cast her ballot in the primary election yesterday.

Suddenly, she said, a hand reached under the curtain and began pulling levers she had not intended to pull.

Asst. Dist. Atty. Leon Katz said the hand belonged to Charles Travis, 41, who was arrested on a charge of illegal assistance in a polling booth. Travis was held in $500 bail for the grand jury.

Pollution once almost eliminated fish from the Thames River around London, but recent pollution control measures are said to be bringing the fish back.

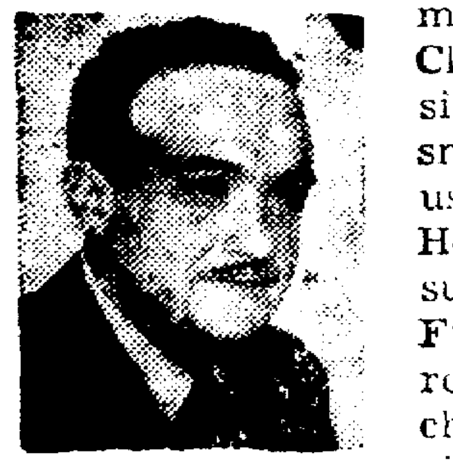
Inside Labor

Attlee's Views

By Victor Riesel



RIESEL

I recall well the little, moustached Britisher who has just stirred up so violent a trans-ocean controversy between Washington and himself. I remember Maj. Clement Attlee sitting with a small group of us in a Mark Hopkins Hotel suite in San Francisco. He relaxed in a characteristic pipe-chewing pose, leaned back in his chair with his hands clasped behind his head in spread-eagle style and outlined his plans for socializing all Britain.

His eagerness to work with the Soviets should therefore not surprise anyone. Attlee is anti-Communist, but he is a Socialist. He wants to see Russia, the satellites and China un-Sovietized, but not un-socialized. He wants free elections—but only for the selection of new leaders, not for the repeal of collectivism anywhere.

THAT ATTITUDE permeates the British Labor party. Its press has said (on Feb. 6, 1953) that "This (Korea) Is Not Our War." It has assailed us for failing Alger Hiss (May 1, 1953). Its leftwing leader, the glossy-witted Aneurin Bevan said on April 11 that "the West should go to great lengths to avoid offending the Russians. . ."

It has urged that the Chinese Nationalist Army be disbanded immediately. Apparently, it considers the Sovietized Chinese a more progressive force.

That must be remembdred in the new world debate. Furthermore, British labor dominates non-Communist world labor and is not eager for a showdown with the Soviets.

Actually, mere crushing of the Soviet rulers without replacement by a British-type socialistic government would be considered counter-revolutionary. We find in the magazine of the anti-Communist, but Socialist-influenced International Confederation of Free Trade Unions such nonsense as the following:

"The third World Congress (of anti-Communist labor unions in Stockholm, July 4) will examine the special and vast problems of the world, including notably the Western Hemisphere.

"If the Iron Curtain casts its shadow over Western Europe, no less are there great countries in Latin-America under the shadow of Peronism, which contains a threat to the free world no less formidable than that of the Kremlin."

THE POISON in this can be seen in the word "if." They still doubt that the Iron Curtain casts its shadow on Europe. They equate dictator Peron's tin soldiers with the armies of the Soviets stretching across one-third the world.

This is intended to put the U. S. in its place. This attitude is deeply resented by American labor leaders—and in London at the end of June there will be some angry sessions as AFL President George Meany calls for a showdown on the anti-American attitude in British Socialist and labor circles. . .

THE REPUBLICAN high command has now decided to treat CIO as part of the Democratic party.

The GOP strategists believe that only CIO, with its manpower and funds, can whip up an effective Democratic political machine to save such senatorial seats next year as those of Humphrey, Murray, Douglas, Neely, etc.

Therefore, the White House, from President Eisenhower and Gherman Adams down, has decided not to appoint CIO men to government posts; not to consult Walter Reuther on any major project; not to show that the administration believes CIO must automatically be included on committees.

The CIO's blast against the White House will probably be unloosed on June 4 when Reuther meets with his entire executive board in Washington.

A group of CIO VP's will press Reuther to say CIO wants no federal jobs, no collaboration with the Republicans and will attack Eisenhower "at every opportunity."

HERE'S WHAT those inside the steel wage negotiations are predicting: No strike. An average pay increase of $5 a week. Slightly better pensions and vacations. A committee to study the guaranteed annual wage.

New York police have warned a Communist controlled Brooklyn political organization near the waterfront to clean up one of its clubs. Despite several police visits, the club is still loaded with mobsters. Several were recently picked up for hi-jacking meat trucks and taking food cargoes off ships.

The Communist waterfront section is holding on to the club charter as a possible wedge onto the New York docks although it means working with the underworld. In fact, at 8 oclock on the night of April 17, the commies actually re-elected one of the goons president of the club.

Speaker Named For Annual C of C Dinner

Approval of the contract for Capt. Michael Fielding to speak at the annual Chamber of Commerce dinner meeting Nov. 16 was made at the regular monthly business meeting of the Chamber board at Hotel Harding Monday.

Fielding, whose office is in Chicago, Ill., is a political and military analyst, world traveler and adventurer. Subject of his talk will be "The Way Out."

The board also approved the new memberhips and reinstatements obtained recently in a membership drive.

Green Camp WSCS Officers Installed

Special to The Star

GREEN CAMP — Mrs. John Dietsch of Marion was in charge of installation of recently elected officers of the WSCS at the May meeting.

The installation followed a prelude of music played by Mrs. Frances Davis in the Methodist Church sanctuary. Taking part on the devotion period were Mrs. Mildred Lanius, Mrs. Ida McNeal, Mrs. Roberta Kline, Mrs. Mabel Porter and Mrs. Flora Schertzer.

The group met at the church parlors for the business meeting. The president announced an officer's meeting for May 21 at 8 p.m. at the church. It was announced the society had cleared $53.65 through a recent rummage sale. Mrs. Edith Schwaderer and Mrs. Ida McNeal were named on a committee to assist and plan for the annual silver tea to be held later with the Baptist Missionary Society.

Mrs. Flora Schertzer, Mrs. Mabel Porter, and Mrs. Mildred Lanius were named on a food committee for the farewell party for the Rev. and Mrs. L. R. Kennard. He is retiring and they will live in Delaware following the annual Methodist convention. Mrs. Dorothy Porter, Mrs. Vena Long and Mrs. Frances Davis are on a program committee for this occasion.

It is estimated that use of tractors on farms instead of horses between 1926 and 1950 saved 12.5 million tons of feed that might have been given to the horses of the United States.

What this boy can tell you about your own child's future

Even at his age, this boy knows that the only true security a man can have is a marketable ability—knowledge and training that industry wants, needs and is ready to buy.

For that reason, he is studying mathematics and the physical sciences in high school to equip himself for college engineering and enter business with a special skill. These studies are every high school student's open door to the great opportunities engineering and science offers youth today.

Next June, 23,000 engineering graduates will enter their profession where starting salaries are high. Some of them will process and package foods, some will design airplanes, some will set out in search of oil or go into manufacturing or invent new machines. They will lay out stores and factories, build new roads, plan whole towns. Many of them will become technically-trained salesmen.

All of them will be doing useful work, all will have a good chance for steady employment and advancement. Many will enter their own business. Their specialized, professional training will be needed for years to come to meet this generation's tremendous shortage of trained engineering personnel.

Don't foreclose on your child's future. See that he takes the high school courses that will qualify him to study engineering if he cares to when he reaches college age. For information, see your high school math or science teacher, guidance counsellor, the personnel department at your place of business, a prominent engineer in your community, or write to the Engineering Manpower Commission, 29 West 39 Street, New York 18, New York, for the free booklet, "Engineering As A Career."

Mrs. Gene Hill

Mrs. Helen Hill of Fostoria, a former Marion resident, died at 2:25 a.m. Tuesday in Fostoria City Hospital of a cerebral hemorrage. She was the wife of E. L. (Gene) Hill, a former Marion businessman.

The Hills resided in Marion 16 years, from 1931-1947, before moving to Fostoria. Mr. Hill owned Gene Hill's Fair Price stations here and was president of the Marion Rotary Club. He was active in civic affairs. After moving to Fostoria, he again went into business.

Mrs. Hill attended the Christian Science Church here.

Surviving in addition to her husband are: one daughter, Mrs. Harry W. McColly, of California; and two sons, Capt. Rex Hill, stationed with the U. S. Air Force in London, England, and Emery Hill, of Fostoria.

Funeral services will be held at the Harold Funeral Home in Fostoria at 1:30 p.m. Thursday. Graveside services will be conducted at 3:30 p.m. at the chapel Heights Cemetery here with the Rev. Howard L. Olewiler officiating.

"Voice's" Political Analyst Resigns

NEW YORK (AP)—Radio commentator Raymond Swing, resigning his job as political analyst for the Voice of America, says the agency is crippled "by slanderous attacks on its integrity."

He adds that the State Department is guilty of "spineless failure . . . to stand by its own staff." The Voice is part of the State Department.

Swing, in his letter of resignation released yesterday, also wrote that budget cuts for the Voice "have reduced it to relative impotence."

Brooklyn Knocks Braves Out of First Place; Yanks Win

Tom Umphlett Notches Winning Run For Bosox

By BEN PHLEGAR
AP Sportswriter

Now the folks in Milwaukee know what the rest of the National League fans found out a long time ago—as guests the Brooklyn Dodgers leave a lot to be desired.

In full view of the largest crowd ever to pay its way in to a sports event in the Wisconsin metropolis, the pesky Dodgers slapped down the Braves last night, 4-1, and knocked them out of a first-place tie.

The victory was only the second for the Bums in seven Western road games and came on their very first appearance in Milwaukee.

Even if the wrong team did win, the home folks saw a real good ball game. The Braves broke it open in the sixth, after five scoreless innings, when Andy Pafko singled home Eddie Mathews.

But with the cheers of the 36,439 loyal fans still echoing, George Shuba sent Brooklyn ahead with a home run after Jackie Robinson had walked.

The Braves brought in Max Surkont, with a 5-0 record as a starter, to pitch in the eighth, and the Dodgers greeted him rudely with two more runs on Duke Snider's sixth homer of the season—a blast over the center field fence that scored Pee Wee Reese.

While the Braves went down, the Philadelphia Phillies went up. Robin Roberts checked the Cincinnati Red Legs, 6-3, for his sixth victory against two defeats and moved the Phils one full game in front of the Braves.

The St. Louis Cardinals edged the Pittsburgh Pirates, 2-1, and the suddenly improved New York Giants won their third in a row, a 6-4 decision over the Chicago Cubs in 10 innings.

Hank Bauer homered in the 11th inning with a man on base to give the New York Yankees a hard-earned 4-2 triumph over the lowly Detroit Tigers while the second-place Chicago White Sox lost their second in a row, a two-hit 2-1 verdict to Harry Byrd and the Philadelphia Athletics. The loss pushed the Sox two games back of the pace-setting Yankees.

The Boston Red Sox defeated the St. Louis Browns, 4-3. Cleveland's game with the Senators at Washington was rained out.

Roberts was in trouble in only one inning at Cincinnati. With two on in the third Willard Marshall

Rookie of the Year in the American League. Jim Rivera singled in the third inning to drive in the Sox' only run and Rocky Krsnich got the other safety in the fourth.

A double by Tom Umphlett followed by Milt Bolling's single gave the Red Sox their winning run in the eighth inning against the Browns. The hits came off Satchell Paige, a loser for the second time in a week.

Roberts Wins Sixth, Whips Cincinnati, 6-3

Kluszewski, Marshall Belt Homers; Redlegs Draw Simmons Today

CINCINNATI (AP)—The Philadelphia Phillies, who set Cincinnati down on the strength of Robin Roberts good right hand Tuesday night, cocked their left today and prepared to start southpaw Curt Simmons.

The Redlegs soon saw why Roberts, who won 28 games last season, is regarded as batting poison. They managed to tap him for three runs on two homers in the fourth, but he shackled them after that and the Phils won, 6-3.

The triumph lifted Philadelphia into sole possession of first place in the National League, while the Redlegs were being shoved a bit deeper down in the coal hole.

Lefty Harry Perkowski of Cincinnati and Roberts reeled off the first three innings in fine style last night before both clubs exploded for three runs in the fourth.

The Phils picked up their three on a homer by Richie Ashburn to open the frame, followed by three singles with a walk sandwiched between.

Cincinnati's Willard Marshall got two runs back in the home half on his fourth homer after Jim Greengrass walked. Ted Kluszewski, second in home runs in the league, followed with his eighth to tie up the score.

But it didn't stay tied long.

Perkowski ran out of gas in the fifth and the Phils picked him for two runs to recapture the lead. Frank Smith replaced Harry aft-

SHORT SPORTS

By John Short

We've read and heard a lot about the Joe Walcott-Rocky Marciano title fight last week. We watched the same telecast that every other fight fan saw but we can't say what happened.

Some people say they saw a right hand land while others say it was a whistling left thrown by Marciano. Personally we saw nothing but a broad back on the television screen at the Elks Lodge.

SHORT

Walcott has been accused, in various corners, of taking a dive, of refusing to fight and not wanting to fight. We apparently belong to a small minority of fans which thinks that perhaps a right uppercut by the champion might have had a little to do with Walcott falling flat on his back for the count.

We have never been an ardent admirer of the challenger and thus far we haven't lost any sleep over the outcome. Our only regret is he caught the punch so early. We wanted to see the old man finished for keeps after a six-round going over by Marciano. But the first round kayo served the same purpose. Walcott is through regardless of the distance.

This corner would hate to think that Walcott suddenly decided to pick up his marbles ($250,000 worth) and leave at the first chance. From our booth seat, it looked as though the challenger hit the canvas rather hard and not from a shove. Several persons tell us they heard two counts and that one was a full second ahead of the other. No, we weren't checking with a stop watch but the two counts we heard were coming from Referee Frank Sikora with Jimmy Powers on the TV mike picking it up. We didn't hear the count from the timer and seriously doubt if anyone else did.

Walcott was said to have reported he didn't want to fight anymore unless in another bout with Mar-

National City Bank And Goodyear Post Wins In Little League Action

The winners upped their margin in the second. After two were out, Jerry Smith walked and Bill Whetro and Pete Sykes doubled. Isaly struck back with a run in the third without a hit on a walk to Boyd, a pair of passed balls and an error.

Indians Begin Suicide Race Against Nats

WASHINGTON (AP) — Cleveland has a rugged schedule to play for the remainder of the American League season.

Starting with tonight's single game with the Washington Senators they must play 128 games in 131 days. That includes 18 doubleheaders and means a real strain on the pitching staff.

A constant rain forced postponement of Tuesday night's game with the Senators. From an Indian fan's point of view, perhaps that's just as well. The Senators are hot. In their last 14 games, the Sena-

Charles May Fail in Bid For Crack at Marciano

NEW YORK (AP)—Roland La Starza may have a slight edge on Ezzard Charles in the maneuvering to get the next crack at Heavyweight Champion Rocky Marciano.

More light may be shed on the matter today or tomorrow when promoter Jim Norris and Al Weill, Marciano's manager, resume talks about Rocky's future foe.

The two conferred for an hour yesterday while Jimmy de Angelo, La Starza's pilot, hovered anxiously outside the conference room in the International Boxing Club's offices.

a middleweight and heavyweight championship fight outdoors in New York this September.

"If it's going to be La Starza against Rocky," said Norris, "the fight should be in New York (La Starza is a New Yorker). If it's Charles, it would not necessarily have to be New York but New York would figure strongly."

Both Weill and Norris said nothing definite was decided. Both are agreed Rocky's opponent must be either Charles or La Starza. Norris wants to have it in September smashed a home run with a man on base and Ted Kluszewski followed immediately with a bases-empty drive. The Redlegs got only three other hits.

Johnny Lindell, the onetime New York Yankee outfielder who came back to the majors this season as a knuckleball pitcher, gave the Cardinals only five hits and struck out eight. Both St. Louis runs were unearned, coming after an error by Danny O'Connell, the Pirates' second baseman.

The Giants came from two runs behind to tie their game with the Cubs in the fifth inning, then caught fire for three more runs in the 10th to hand Warren Hacker his sixth loss of the season.

The White Sox managed only two singles off Byrd, last season's

Turner, Hayes In Televison Scrap

ST. LOUIS (AP)—Scrapping Jesse Turner of St. Louis moves into his first feature event here tonight as he takes on Boston's Norman Hayes in a 10-round nationally televised boxing bout.

The fight also will be telecast locally by the Columbia Broadcasting System beginning at 9 p. m. (EST) from the St. Louis Arena.

Hayes, 24, is the 10th ranked middleweight going into tonight's event. Experience gives Hayes the edge despite his eight defeats in the last nine fights.

Kansas City Clings To Lead in Association

By The Associated Press

Kansas City's Blues kept their lead in the American Association with a 12-innng 2-1 victory over St. Paul Tuesday night.

In other games, Indianapolis vaulted into second place by beating Charleston twice, 3-2 and 7-6; Toledo moved up from seventh to fifth in downing Columbus 5-2, and last - place Minneapolis dropped Louisville to third by beating the Colonels 9-3.

Two home runs were decisive in the Toledo victory over Columbus. Luis Marquez socked a three-run homer and Sam Jethroe added another, with none on.

Bird-McGinnis, K&W, UAW Softball Teams Cop Openers

Bird-McGinnis, K & W Plumbing and UAW-CIO captured victories Tuesday at Garfield Park in the opening of the Commercial Softball League.

Bird-McGinnis nipped the West Town Merchants in a thriller, 2-1, when Don Williams powered a home run in the last half of the seventh inning with Lowell Ralston perched on the sacks. Howard Medley, West Town hurler, had pitched a no-hitter until the final inning. He fanned Dick Williams to open the 7th but Ralston ruined Medley's chances for a no-hitter by belting a three-base hit into left center. Medley then fanned Niles but Williams followed with his four-master to overcome West Town's one-run lead and break the game wide open. Dwight Wilcox allowed five hits in his winning efforts for the Legion nine.

K & W served notice in the Commercial League that they are going to be a power club to contend with by blanking GI Post, 5-0. Bud England and Bud Thorpe locked horns again in a traditional pitchers' battle with England of K & W emerging as winner. Chuck Wynn contribtued to the Plumbers' victory in the sixth inning by belting a home run with the sacks empty to fatten the winners margin.

UAW-CIO and Carl's Auto Parts went nine innings before the Union squad from Marion Industries pushed over a run in the bottom half of the ninth to win, 4-3. Trailing by a 3-1 count in the seventh, Carl's rallied in their half with two tallies to tie up the game and throw it into extra innings. A base on balls to Garverick and Davidson's single broke up the tie and sent the CIO squad home as winners.

ciano. We think he might be carrying things a little too far. Our advice would be to stay out of the same room with Marciano. The next time one punch might not do it and those uppercuts could cut a guy's face up in six or seven rounds.

MARION'S BOBO HOLLOMAN. Walcott wasn't the only sore athlete on the scene Tuesday morning. Mel Weston, hurler for the Church of the Brethren softball team, is still nursing a stiff wing. Mel elbowed his way to a 5-0 win over Greenwood in his first mound job of the year Monday.

Tuesday he admitted he could "hardly lift the arm" but was anxious to go for No. 2. Mel faced only 2 men in his mound gem, walking five. It was Marion's first no-hitter of the young season.

Repeat in Win, Place, Show Spots

LEBANON, O. (AP)—Three horses amazed Lebanon harness racing fans here Tuesday night by duplicating their win-place-show positions in two dashes of one mile each in the featured Class B pace for a $1,000 divided purse.

Margaret Ann Song won the first dash at Lebanon Raceway with a time of 2:11 2-5 to pay $5.20, $4 and $3.40 in the fifth race, then won the second dash in 2:10 3-5 in the eighth race to pay $3.80, $2.80 and $2.20.

Second - place Scotty Direct and third - place Glasgow also placed and showed, respectively, in the second dash.

A crowd of 2,115 fans who attended the second night of racing of the 19-night spring meet here wagered $52,211. The feature of the Lebanon Trotting Association's program tonight will be a Class A trot in the fifth and eighth races for a $1,000 divided purse.

the fourth for its win.

Dale Walters' triple and Ross Morbitt's double produced the first run. It was 3-0 after a pair of walks to Don Kerns and Lew Williams, a passed ball, an error, Morbitt's second two-bagger and another error.

In the top of the fourth, Marion County Bank took the lead, 5-4, with its five-run rally. Larry Sims led off with a single, Chuck Lindsey followed with a homer, Billy Wolfe doubled, Terry Gilmore reached base on a fielder's choice, and Larry Gruber tripled. Also figuring in the inning were a pair of passed balls and an error.

National City Bank tied it up at 5-5 in its half of the fourth on Pete Porietas' double, a walk to Don Kerns, and a single by Jones.

The losers were right back in the lead in the fifth. Gary Craft's single, a pair of infield outs, and Buddy Collins' safety brought the run in.

However, National City Bank came back with two runs in the fifth and then held Marion County Bank scoreless in the sixth and final frame for the win. Walters doubled, Eddie Steerman singled, Larry Combs also singled, and Porietas doubled.

Walters, Morbitt and Porietas each had two hits for the winners. Williams went all the way for the win while Marion County Bank starter Collins, who surrendered nine hits, was the loser.

Goodyear - Marion Tire Service scored early and then coasted to its opening win over Isaly Dairy, defending American League and city champ.

The winners tagged John "Nick" Nichols, Isaly hurler, for three runs in the first and added two more off his slants in the second for a comfortable 5-2 margin. Jerry Smith singled, Bill Whetro doubled, Rogert Bartz, the pitcher, tripled and Dave Kelly doubled. An error and passed ball also aided the first inning cause.

Isaly was back with two runs in its half of the first. Phil Pow-the fourth with four runs for a 9-3 lead.

Jerry Smith doubled, Whetro singled, Sykes singled, Bartz doubled, and Mike Newland reached base on an error. Also figuring in the inning was a passed ball.

Isaly scored a tally in its portion of the fourth on Dulin's double and a pair of passed balls, but the winners matched that in the top of the sixth on Sykes' double, and a two-bagger by Bartz.

A rally by Isaly fell short in the sixth after three runners had crossed the plate. Jimmie Jordan walked, Nichols kept the rally alive after two were out with a double, Boyd walked, a wild pitch and error helped bring the runs in.

Bartz held Isaly to three hits, by Nichols, Boyd and Dulin, in recording the win. Losing pitcher was Nichols, who gave up 15 hits including four to Bartz and three each to Smith, Whetro and Sykes.

Ohio Wesleyan Concert Slated for Thursday

Special to The Star

DELAWARE — The Men's Glee Club, the Symphony Orchestra, and the Concert Band of Ohio Wesleyan University will appear together in the first annual Tri-Concert Symphony at 8 p.m. Thursday in Gray Chapel.

Under the direction of Gordon Almstead, of the music faculty, the glee club will sing "Still of Night," "Nothing Like a Dame," and "Oklahoma."

Then with the symphony orchestra, under the direction of Prof Romine Hamilton, they will sing "Pilgrims Chorus" and "March of Peers," by Gilbert and Sullivan. The band will be under the direction of Prof. Charles Thompson.

Sponsored by the Ohio Wesleyan Department of Music, the Tri-Concert will be open to the public. There will be no charge for admission.

Bucyrus Signs Cage Mentor

Hutton Refuses Offer At Mansfield School

BUCYRUS — Bucyrus High School today had a new head basketball coach. He is John D. Hutton, 32, basketball coach at Shadyside, O., High School for the past four years.

School Supt. I. J. Miller reported that Hutton has accepted a one-year contract at a salary of $4,275 a year. He succeeds Richard King, whose resignation is effective next month.

Married and the father of two daughters, Hutton is a graduate of Utica High School and Ohio Northern University at Ada. He received his master's degree at Ohio State University and is qualified to teach industrial arts, biology, social studies, physical education and guidance.

Hutton had been offered the head basketball coaching post at Mansfield Madison High School but rejected the offer to come to Bucyrus, Supt. Miller reported.

With the hiring of Hutton, Bucyrus High School will have new head coaches in both football and basketball. Richard Frantz, assistant football coach, was advanced to the head grid coaching spot a few weeks ago by the school board.

There still is an assistant coaching vacancy on the school faculty, Supt. Miller pointed out. An additional coaching position was created recently by the school board and the appointee will assist in football, basketball and bas ball.

Attend State K of C Meet

Marion Delegation At Two-Day Convention

A delegation from the local Knights of Columbus Council No. 671 attended the annual K of C state convention at Columbus which concluded a two-day session Monday.

Attending were Joseph M. Dunn and Charles F. Simonis, grand knight, who were delegates. George Baron, chancellor, and Stephen Byrnes, financial secretary, went as alternates to the delegates. Also attending were Thomas E. Andrews and L. A. Axe.

Delegates at the convention went on record opposing a bill in the state legislature which would abolish film censorsip. The delegates, representing 152 local councils and 50,000 members, also voted to ask the legislature to make Good Friday a legal holiday and to request the federal government to insert the phrase, "In God We Trust," on all postage stamps.

Larry Rogers of Warren was elected state deputy and Thomas Dowd of Kenton was selected state advocate.

The local Knights of Columbus will hold an old time dance in the club rooms on W. Center St. Saturday at 9 p.m. On Tuesday at 8 p.m. at the club rooms, nomination of officers will be held. Program that night will have Ollie Neimeyer, of Prospect, game protector, showing wildlife movies. Election of officers will be held at the June 9 meeting.

Galion Man Held Under $500 Bond For Grand Jury

Special to The Star

GALION — A former restaurant owner in Galion was bound over to the Crawford County Grand Jury under $500 bond when he appeared before Mayor Jay F. Nichols, Tuesday night, on a charge of issuing a check without funds.

The charge was brought against E. H. Hill, 31, of Galion, by Rolland Flowers, owner of the Buckeye Lockers. Hill reportedly wrote a check for $29, payable to Flowers, on Feb. 17, 1953. Since that time, Hill has been in Fitzgerald, Ga. He was arrested by local police at 7:20 p.m., a short time after he arrived in Galion, Tuesday. He was given a hearing almost immediately by Mayor Nichols. Hill formerly operated the Home Restaurant on Harding Way East.

Two other persons were fined by the mayor, Monday. Leo S. Shindeldecker, of Galion, pleaded guilty to driving while intoxicated and was fined $100 and costs. A 30-day jail sentence was suspended. Jesse Lee Stone, of Galion, arrested early Sunday, also pleaded guilty to the same charge and was given the same fine and suspended sentence.

Another motorist, John E. Courtner, 19, of North Robinson, pleaded guilty to reckless operation after his car missed the Erie St. dead end off Park Ave. early Sunday, and he was fined $5 and costs.

SAFETY TIRE

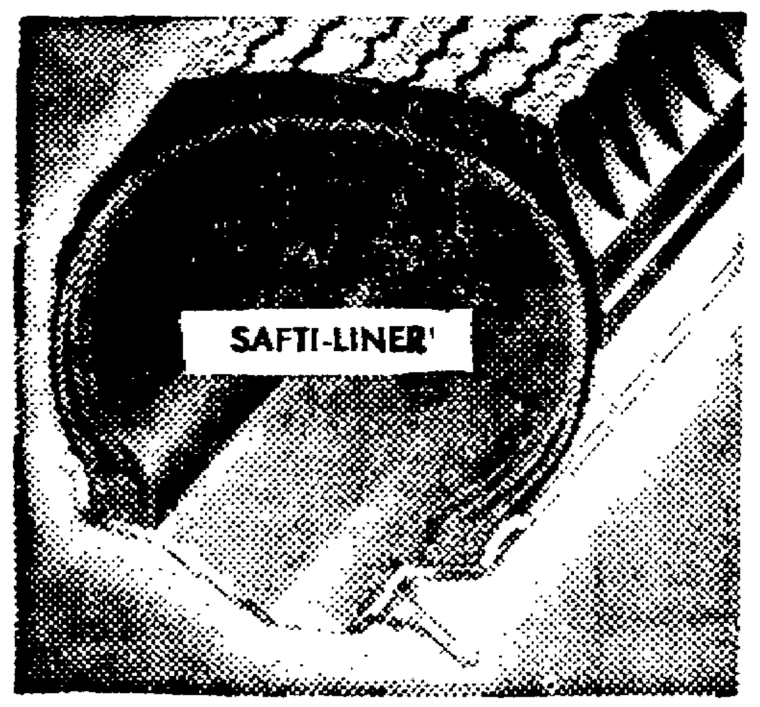
Protects You Against Blowouts and Punctures ...Yet Priced Practically as Low as Conventional Tires and Tubes

Here's the Reason . . . Patented

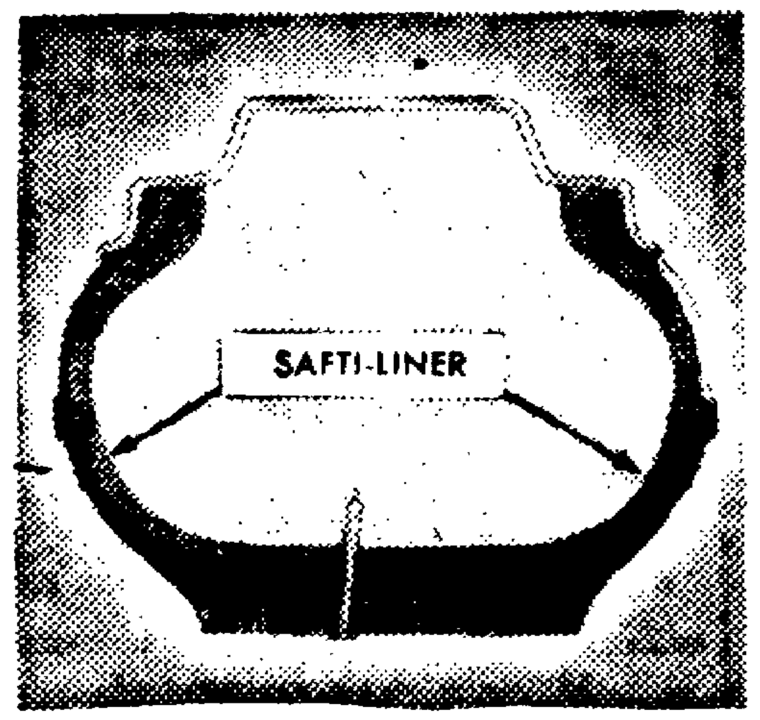
SAFTI-LINER PROTECTS AGAINST

(BLOWOUTS)



Here is a tire with new principles of design and construction which protects you against dangerous blowouts. In this new safety tire, the tube is replaced by an air-tight butyl Safti-Liner that's bonded to the inside of the tire. No tube to pinch, tear or suddenly explode when injury to the tire body occurs. Air loss is so gradual there is ample time for safe, sure stops.

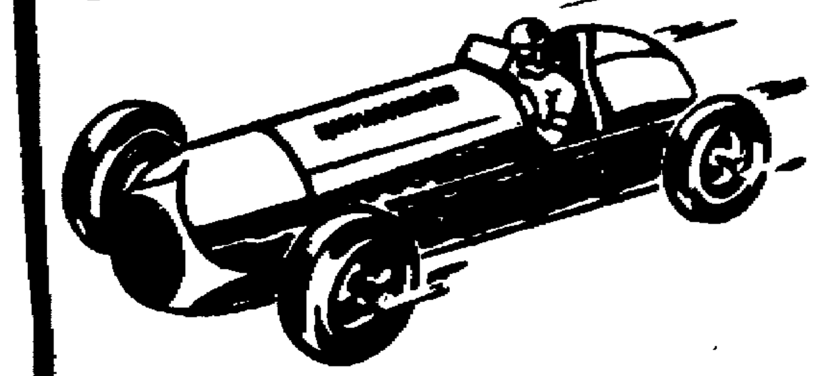
(PUNCTURES)



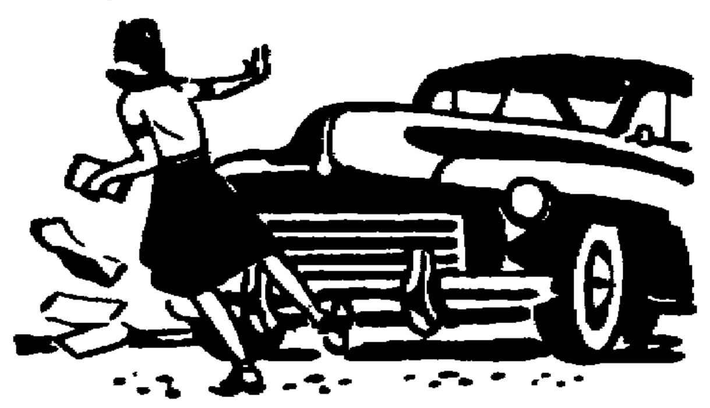
Here is a tire that gives you protection against punctures. No more roadside delays in dangerous traffic, because the air-tight butyl Safti-Liner that's bonded to the inside of the tire clings to penetrating nails and sharp objects, prevents loss of air, and enables you to finish your trip without changing tires.

INSTALL THEM ON YOUR PRESENT WHEELS . . . YOUR OLD TIRES WILL MAKE THE DOWN PAYMENT!

Plus These Safety Features



RACING TIRE CONSTRUCTION
Incorporating racing tire construction features, this new tire passes the most rigid requirements of today's high speed driving.



MORE NON-SKID SAFETY
Scientifically designed tread, with thousands of sharp angles, skid resisters and traction boosters gives you more safe non-skid protection.

How To Take The Gamble Out of USED CAR BUYING!

Before you buy any used car, ask yourself Who can I be sure will give me a square deal?

You know we're responsible merchants, dealing with responsible people. You know we sell reliable cars — that's why we're Buick dealers.

And when it comes to used cars —we follow the same policy. Our All Square Used Cars get an honest inspection. Trained mechanics do a real repair and reconditioning job wherever needed. We deliver a car to you that you'll be happy to own—and that makes us glad you came to us.

We also give you a firm written All Square Guarantee!

Remember that as you read the fine values listed here:

Woodcarving Pays For Farm and Education

ELMA, N. Y. (UP)—Spare-time woodcarving of small birds started in a California relocation camp during World War II, is helping a Japanese-American educate his family and improve his truck farm here.

Joshua Y. Tsujimoto recalled that during the years in the camp in Arizona he spent many hours carving. After the war the family took over a 24-acre farm near this Erie County community.

Josh and his brother, Harry, enrolled in Cornell University agriculture courses, supporting themselves by selling their scatter-pin birds to students. This demand
